Upcoming History Tests

Your student recently completed a study guide on the Middle Ages unit in class. This should be in his/her Take-Home Binder. Please spend some time at home reviewing the guide's information in preparation for a test. Bogdanov/Rogers classes will take this test on Wednesday, 11/4, and Schell/Brunk classes will take it on Thursday, 11/5. The use of study guides and/or journals will not be allowed during this exam.

Curriculum

Spelling— This week's test will cover List 7 and Rule 2.

[RULE 2: The letter c before e, i, or y says s (city), but followed by any other letter it says k (cat).]

Math – Next up? Solving word problems using division.

Writing –Students will put finishing touches on their independent assignments this week--a retelling of "The Tortoise and the Hare".

Reading – We enjoyed learning about Pony Penning Day as part of our literature lessons for Misty of Chincoteague. We are continuing in The Hobbit for read-aloud.

Grammar – In week nine of Fix-It Grammar, we will continue to practice the use of adverbs (to modify verbs, adjectives, or other adverbs).

Poetry- Our November poem will be "Monday's Child", an informal recitation due on Thursday, 11/19.

History – We have learned so much about the Middle Ages! Please spend some time with those study guides before the test.

Science –Our "Investigating Waves" unit wraps up this week with a lesson involving Morse code.
