 Happy Day Before Halloween, CMS! Today is the final day of National Red Ribbon Week. Although the national celebration of this important cause is coming to an end, we hope that all of you will continue to make positive choices by living a life free from drugs and alcohol. Yesterday, we were happy to see so many of you dressed up in Carmel Gear and LOTS of Red, showing that CMS is Proud to Be Drug Free and standing by the Red Ribbon Pledge. Mrs. Krislyn's first period CORE class had the highest percentage of students showing their dedication to the Red Ribbon Pledge. We hope you enjoy your treats. Today, we also hope you are Scaring Away Drugs and Alcohol by wearing your Halloween costumes. If you are wearing a Halloween costume, meet Mrs. Wells in the main quad during lunch for a special treat. Teachers, please complete the form that Mrs. Wells emailed you this morning to let us know how many students are dressed up. We hope that you all enjoy your Halloween Weekend!

 BATTLE OF THE BOOKS IS HERE! The library has rolled out this year's Battle of the Books display, and the excitement is building! But hold on to your bookmarks! The book titles will be REVEALED on Monday! Show up during break on Monday to help us unwrap the titles! If you've participated in Battle of the Books before, you already know the fun, excitement, and friendly competition that are coming your way! New to Battle of the Books? No worries! Stay tuned to the bulletins for more information about this exciting library program.

 Pumpkin Carving Contest! Who carved it best? Stop on by the library to see Advanced Domestic Arts pumpkins on display and pick your favorite design. Vote on the CMS Library Webpage. May the best pumpkin win!

 Come check out the Día de los Muertos exhibit in the library that was created by the CMS Spanish classes to remember the lives of loved ones who are no longer with us. We invite all students and staff to add a framed photograph of loved ones. Classes are encouraged to visit the exhibit and participate in the Dia de los Muertos activities taking place in the Library, November 3rd -19th. ¡Gracias!

 8th Graders! Listen up! The Yearbook Staff is enduring the Great 2026 Baby Photo Crisis. Over the weekend, please look through your baby and toddler photos, choose the cutest, funniest, or corkiest, and submit to the yearbook staff. How do you do that? You can email it to Mr. Fosler directly or upload it through the yearbook link on our website. Never had we ever had so few 8th Grade Baby Photos submitted, so please make it happen ASAP. Thank you!

 Yesterday at Wiffler's Park, the Littletown Lemonades took on the M Dawg Elites in a win-or-go-home showdown. Evan Camarillo got the Lemonades off to a sweet start with a solo blast, but the Elites quickly answered back with a six-run inning to take control of the game. From there, the Lemonades struggled to generate much offense, as poor pitch selection and costly baserunning mistakes kept them from putting runs on the board. They finally managed to push another run across in the final inning, but the comeback attempt came too little, too late. With the loss, the Lemonades' playoff run comes to an end. The Littletown Lemonades have officially been E-LEMONADED! The world series begins on Monday with the M Dawg Elites taking on the Silva Swagasaurs.

 The 30th Annual CMS Chess Tournament will begin next week. If you are interested, sign up in room C-6 ASAP.. And... remember the advice of the old chess master, Emmanuel Lasker, "If you see a good move, look for a better one."

 Today's Menus: Breakfast: Ham, Egg, & Cheese Croissant Sandwich, Cinnamon Swirl Bun, and Frosted Flakes.
Lunch: Domino's Pepperoni & Cheese Pizza, a Taco Bowl w/chips, Cheese Ravioli w/a garlic knot, or a Parfait w/granola.

 Happy Birthday to: _____ Also, to: _____ who will be celebrating over the weekend!
