Thank you for your support of
The DeMatha Music Program!

DeMatha's Music Program began in 1970 with 19 students. The Music Program now enrolls approximately 30% of the student body.

The music curriculum includes four concert bands, three percussion ensembles, three string orchestras, three choruses, and six levels of music theory. The program includes the following extra-curricular groups: Philharmonic, jazz ensemble, a pep band for basketball games, and numerous small ensembles.

The Music Program has received national and international acclaim. The National Catholic Bandmaster's Association named DeMatha's Wind Ensemble the Outstanding Catholic High School Band in the United States this Spring. The Wind Ensemble has earned this honor 20 out of 23 years. Additionally DeMatha's Sinfonia was named the Outstanding Catholic High School Orchestra in the United States this Spring. This is the first time the competition was open to string orchestras.

Each year the Wind Ensemble, Symphonic Band, Concert Band II, the Advanced Percussion Ensemble, Percussion Ensemble II, DeMatha Sinfonia, Voices of DeMatha, and DeMatha Harmonics perform at local, national and international music festivals. DeMatha performing groups consistently receive Superior ratings at these festivals and have received over 50 Gold Medals at music festivals held in Chicago, Toronto, Orlando, Atlanta, Gatlinburg, Nashville, Myrtle Beach, Virginia Beach, and Daytona Beach.

Since 1970, several hundred student-musicians have been chosen to perform with the Maryland All-State Bands, Orchestras, and Choruses. Over a thousand have performed with the Washington Archdiocesan Music Teacher Council Honor Bands and Orchestras throughout the years.

Mr. James Turk, Dr. Michael Gatti, Mr. Matthew Bickel '95, Mr. Carlos Castrillon '95, and Mr. Ryan Vest have a collective 112 years of teaching experience, including 93 years teaching at DeMatha.

Mr. James Roper, DeMatha's band director from 1981-2021, teaching in the Music Building in 2021.

Mr. John H. Mitchell, the first DeMatha band director, conducting in the original gymnasium circa 1970s.

Blake Bascus - Bass Clarinet

The 2026 DeMatha music trip, I loved hanging out with all my friends, it was my first time on that trip, and on top of that the performances were amazing! I loved performing our music for the festival at Busch Gardens and watching voices of DeMatha perform. It was a memorable experience and I will forever be grateful that I went on it.

Adrian Brown - Clarinet

My best memory was when I played the concert music in front of my family and when I finished, they congratulated me for knowing all the notes and rhythms. It made them excited for the actual concert.

Jaden Butler Myers - Percussion

My favorite music memory the 1st ever concert I played here at DeMatha when I was in Percussion Ensemble 1.

Liam Coll - Double Bass

Playing soccer by the ocean after finishing our concert in Virginia Beach

Ayooluwa Eremah - Percussion

During one of our evening rehearsals, Mr. Castrillon had our entire wind ensemble put down our instruments and sing our parts to the march Amparito Roca. It was an incredibly fun and unique moment, and it is one of my favorite memories from band.

Cale Fuller - Percussion

My most memorable music memory is my first ever concert with DeMatha because I remember being so nervous because I've never played in front of a crowd so big.

William Geohagan - Percussion

My favorite music memory has to be last year's Kaleidoscope concert when my friends and I were singing along to "Espresso".

Michael Greenleaf - Flute

I really enjoyed playing Chicago in the Kaleidoscope Concert last year.

Kaden Henderson - Percussion

A unique concert experience is when we played in New York for the first time.

Josian Henson - Double Bass

Me and my friend used to bike around DC to play gigs on the weekends. I would be on my bike with a guitar on my back while he had roller blades on and hung onto the back of the bike. He always had a bass and a huge amp that he had to carry so he didn't have control over his speed or direction. Almost launched him into traffic a couple times.

Eric Nkuo - Cello

My best music memory was when I played my first concert. I was very nervous, and the pressure I felt was so high, but thanks to God, it worked out well.

Jaden Shockley - Violin

My favorite music memory is when Mr. Bickel challenged Sinfonia to play Bach's Brandenburg Concerto No. 3. I will never forget how hard we worked on it. Just hearing how much we improved at each rehearsal made it well worth the effort.

Ben Stockton - Bassoon

When Mr. Castrillon leaves a student in charge

Theo TerHaar - Clarinet

My best memory is doing a Piano and Clarinet duet with my brother for my Great Grandfather´s 100th birthday.

Anthony Tong - Trumpet

My favorite memory has to be the 2024 Virginia Beach Music Trip.

Joseph Urbina - Euphonium

The best memory is being able to play my parts in front of my family.

Ayden Williams - Percussion

Getting pizza with my friends at Virginia Beach.

It is hard to put into words what it feels like to watch your son grow from a little boy into an incredible young man. As we reflect on Senior year, our hearts are filled with so many memories and so much pride. Your academic accomplishments, leadership, and musicianship are certainly worthy of celebration, but what makes us most proud is the young man God has called you to be.

As you begin this next chapter, always know that you have a family standing behind you, praying for you, believing in you, and cheering you on every step of the way. The best is still ahead, and we cannot wait to see where you land. We love you beyond words and are incredibly proud and blessed to call you our son.

Live up to your potential!

Jon Farley '27

Dear Jonathan, we don't know how one person got blessed with enough lung power to blast the tenor saxophone in band AND run up and down the basketball court, but we are very proud of you.

Watching you grow in true DeMatha style and head toward graduation has been the best ride. We wish you and all the members of the DeMatha Band program an inspired and successful 2026-27 season.

And we promise to cheer without embarrassing you too much.

With love from Dad, Mom, Grandma, Daniel '19, and Reyna.
