Principal's Report
Start of the Year
Our Vision - Equity, DEIB, Wellness, Instructional Priorities
Note: School Committee Presentation is linked in slide deck

- Roll Call and Introductions
  - Starter - Which Amy Poehler are you today?
  - Review of the purpose of SAC
- Discussion of the school improvement plan's main focus areas
  - District focuses on student Discourse and shifting the cognitive load, which started here at CC
  - Club fair during flex was a win - Lots of positive feedback from students, staff, and parents
- Decision regarding this year's chairs
  - Co-Principals Stahl and Miller will be co-chairs
  - Jen Scott vice-chair
  - Parent chair - Debra Antonangeli
  - Secretary - Madeline Pooler
- Flex Discussion: Debra Antonangeli asked for an update on Flex - Katie shared that things continue to evolve over time
  - Working better for giving everyone in the community what they need and building connections
  - Students shared that they really enjoy Flex - relief for work completion and getting help when needed.
  - Tamara Myles (Parent) - shared the history of initial response to the change to flex as negative but great to see the shift in feelings once everyone understood what it really is
  - Debra Antonangeli (Parent Chair) - Really helpful for your 3-season athlete. Time in the day to complete work and manage things instead of all at night
  - Jen Scott (AP and Co-chair) - Allows students to figure out how to plan and manage their time.

Vision of a Graduate
Quick overview
Feedback on Current Six (Bridge)
Looking Ahead

- VOG - Brian Miller (Co-chair and Co-principal
  - We have narrowed down to 6 categories for all the data collected in 2025-26
  - Everyone had the opportunity to comment on categories

New Business
Public Comment
Tabled Items/Future Items (CELL PHONES)

- Discussion for next time:
  - Jen Scott - We will discuss phones
  - Mark Johnson - would like to discuss that grade does not always reflect effort
  - Tamara Myles - Would like to discuss AI
