PROGRAM IS FUNDED BY THE
AMERICAN RESCUE PLAN ACT.

A Christmas Carol

A Ghost Story of Christmas

Read by Michael Langlois

"Performed in costume with theatrical lighting and using the public reading script Dickens himself used, this performance brings to life the transformative experiences of the miserly Scrooge as he encounters the Ghosts of Christmas, and is brought face-to-face with the true meaning of compassion and generosity. Be transported to Victorian London and rediscover this most famous of holiday stories in a way you won't forget."

Wednesday, December 9
6:00 - 7:15pm
