How Can Parents Get Involved in Their Child's Education?

Your involvement is an integral part of your child's education! By taking an active role in our school, parents show their children that they are valued and that education is important. Below you will find a variety of ways that you can be involved in the education of your child:

- Read to and with your child daily
- Visit your local library frequently
- Attend open houses
- Attend parent/teacher conferences
- Volunteer in your child's classroom
- Communicate regularly with your child's teacher

Title 1 Parent Brochure

EDGERTON PUBLIC ELEMENTARY

PRINCIPAL: KEITH BUCKRIDGE

What is Title 1?

Title 1 is one of the nation's largest federal programs through which school districts receive federal funding to provide supplemental instruction for students based upon academic need. The goal is to increase performance and academic achievement in the areas of language arts. Schools are identified as Title 1 based on the economic level of the families who attend. The number of students receiving free and reduced lunch qualify a school to receive Title 1 funding.

Edgerton Public & Title 1

- The free and reduced lunch population at Edgerton Public is greater than 40%, which qualifies us for Targeted Title 1 status.

School Parent Compact

Parents will be asked to sign a compact. The compact is an agreement between the parents and the school to help ensure each child's academic success. By signing the compact all agree they are going to work together to improve learning. This compact is required by the Federal Title 1 guidelines.

Purpose of Title 1:

- ✓ Help every child receive a high quality education
- ✓ Build capacity for parent involvement
- ✓ Provide professional development for building staff

Eligibility Requirements

A variety of factors are used to determine student eligibility, including but not limited to: standardized tests, classroom-based assessments and performance, as well as teacher recommendations.
