Kindergarten Weekly News

November 2-5th, 2026

Kinder Highlights

What's in the bag letter: Jj

Baggie books: Please remember to have your child read the book to you 4 times, fill in parent note and return on your child's What's in the Bag day!

Reminders:

- Our optional family project for November is disguising a turkey! Have fun being creative!
- Come and enjoy an evening with other elementary parents in our TCA community. Here is the link for the Nov. 12th Parent Academy: 2026ParentAcademyClassDescriptions.pdf (Central Campus)
- Be on the look out for our Thanksgiving Feast sign- ups! (Reminder: Parents are invited to our Curriculum Day, but please no siblings.)
- Light blue cardigans are not part of TCA uniforms. Please refer to the uniform policy on our website for more information.

Curriculum

Phonograms- introducing sh, ee, th, ow. This week we will test a,d,f,g,s,qu,b,e. Please practice all phonograms a-z orally and written at home.

Handwriting – Letters are close but not touching!

Math: Ch 4-Shapes and Solids

Literature – King Midas and the Golden Touch

Core- Native Americans

Important Dates

Nov. 19

Curriculum day-First Thanksgiving
Students should wear their TCA uniforms

Nov. 23-27

Thanksgiving Break

Dec. 21 -January 1st

Winter Break

Jan. 4

Professional Education Day- no students

Jan. 5th-

Only Kindergarten students attend

November Sayings:

"Great oaks from little acorns grow."

October character virtue: Gratitude

October recitation:

"Happy Thoughts" by Robert Louis Stevenson, and "Early to Bed" by Benjamin Franklin