Frequently Asked Questions

Does the plan include dependents?
Yes, the Legal Plan Benefit is a family plan that includes the employee, their spouse, and qualified dependent children up to the age of 26.[4]

Will the plan help me outside of my home state? Yes, simply call Member Services for assistance.

Are pre-existing issues included?
Pre-existing legal matters are included as an expanded service, which provides members with an initial consultation and a 25% discount on the attorney’s hourly rate. To take full advantage of your plan and maximize savings, it’s important to enroll in Legal Resources before a legal issue arises.

Are there out-of-pocket expenses?
The Legal Resources Benefit Plan pays 100% of attorney fees for included services. Members are responsible for non-attorney expenses and administration fees such as court costs, filing fees or any fines assessed.

1. Members are responsible for all non-attorney costs, such as filing fees, fines, court costs, and other related expenses. A 12-month commitment is required. Courtroom representation, when necessary, is included through General District Court. The definition of General District Court may vary by state.

2. Adult misdemeanor offenses involving illegal drugs, alcohol (except a first-offense DUI), and firearms are available at a 25% discount.

3. The Legal Resources Plan does not provide any services or access to the attorney network for legal matters involving the Plan Sponsor.

4. This Summary of Benefits provides a general overview of the services included in the Legal Resources Plan. For a complete description of the terms, limitations, and exclusions, please review the Legal Resources Plan Contract.

   Legal services are subject to the terms, conditions, limitations, exclusions, and provisions of the applicable Legal Resources Plan Contract. Plan benefits, coverage, and attorney availability may vary by jurisdiction and applicable state laws and regulations.
