Community Announcement:

Superintendent Search

Dear Bedford City Schools Community,

The Bedford City School District Board of Education is beginning its search for the district's next superintendent.

We are committed to selecting a leader who will build on our strengths, address our challenges, and support the success of every student.

Community input is an important part of this process.

We invite parents and guardians, students, teachers, staff, alumni, and community members to complete a brief survey sharing the qualities, experience, and leadership characteristics you would like to see in our next superintendent.

Your feedback will help the Board develop a leadership profile and guide the search.

Please complete the survey:

Survey Deadline: November 23, 2027

Thank you for sharing your perspective and for your continued support of Bedford City Schools. We appreciate your partnership as we work to identify a superintendent who will lead our district with vision, integrity, and a commitment to student achievement.

Sincerely,
Board of Education
Bedford City School District
