HELLO NOVEMBER

A new month brings new opportunities to read, learn, discover, and connect. With Thanksgiving just around the corner, it's also a time to pause and appreciate the people, stories, and experiences that make our days a little brighter.

INTERNATIONAL LIBRARY COLLECTION:

We're excited to share that our international book collection continues to grow! We've recently added Japanese books to our collection.
Our shelves also feature books in Spanish, Ukrainian, Russian, and Polish, offering students the opportunity to explore stories and perspectives in different languages.
Happy reading!

LEARN, CONNECT & COLLABORATE:

Our Media Center is featuring some wonderful student work! We're excited to showcase artwork created by Ms Peterson's talented art students.
You'll also find book reviews written by Ms. Apperson-Skobel's students.
Thank you to our teachers and students for sharing their work and helping our library community learn, connect, and collaborate!

FUN!

A PATCH FULL OF STORIES

Our Pumpkin Plots display brought favorite books, characters, and genres to life.
So many colors, so many genres, so many stories to tell!

FREEDOM TO READ WEEK

RECAP

During October 4–10, we celebrated the freedom to read in the Media Center!
A big thank-you to our students, teachers, and staff for participating and helping make the week so special. Together, we celebrated the importance of access to diverse stories, ideas, and perspectives, and the power of reading to help us learn, grow, and understand the world around us.
Thank you for being part of this special occasion.

BOOK CLUB:

Thank you to all our Book Club participants who joined us for our last meeting! We hope to see you again at our next meeting on Monday, November 30th, after school in the library.
