Coach Jamar Turner played his entire roster Monday night as the Crockett County Middle School Lady Cavaliers improved their season record to 4-1 with a 37-2 trouncing of Humboldt in Alamo.

Playing only in the first half, Trinity Pankey netted 13 points and Jordin Bond tossed in 12 as the Lady Cavs raced to a 33-0 halftime advantage. Humboldt finally avoided a shutout with a third-quarter bucket, but Crockett's reserves didn't allow another point after that in sustaining the victory. Six other Lady Cavs added two points apiece in support of Pankey and Bond.

In the boys game, the talented Vikings rebounded from an early Crockett lead and outlasted the Cavaliers 40-34. Coach Tyler Gadlen's Cavs once again had balanced scoring, with Jaylen Frye collecting nine, Jayce Cobb and Jordan Young eight each, and Reese Jones four, but Humboldt's Andrew Ivy drilled in 21 to tip the scales in the visitors' favor. The Cavs are now 3-2.

Both CCMS teams travel to Trenton Tuesday night for another doubleheader.
