CCHS VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT TITLE WON BY HOST LADY CAVS; DYER COUNTY NEXT UP

Above: Saturday's tournament championship team. Front row (left to right): Jentry Elmore, Addie Davidson, and Lakyn Forsythe. Back row (left to right): Caroline Neal, Addie Whitby, Lola Bailey, Wesley Thornton, Kira Bray, Emilee Chandler, Madi Collins, Carmen Claybrooks, and manager Tink Willis.

Dropping just one set in six matches, Crockett County's Lady Cavs ended a grueling day of volleyball tournament competition by claiming the championship of their own event, avenging a regular-season defeat to Milan in the title match.

Crockett downed Ripley, Camden, and Lexington in pool play – all by 2-0 counts – but needed a third set to eliminate Trinity Christian Academy in the bracket play quarterfinals. Coach Andrew Laman's crew then toppled Rossville 2-0 in the semifinals and Milan 2-0 in the championship duel.

The six Saturday victories pushed Crockett's season record to 25-8 heading into Tuesday night's big rematch with Dyer County in Newbern. The Lady Choctaws are currently the top seed in the upcoming district tournament, The Lady Cavs presently sit in the second place

Above: Addie Whitby. (Photo by Ron Barry)

Below: Carmen Claybrooks. (Photo by Ron Barry)

Above: Emilee Chandler. (Photo by Ron Barry)

Below: Jentry Elmore. (Photo by Ron Barry)

Above: Caroline Neal. (Photo by Ron Barry)

Below: Kira Bray. (Photo by Ron Barry)

Above: Lakyn Forsythe. (Photo by Ron Barry)

Below: Lola Bailey. (Photo by Ron Barry)

Above: Wesley Thornton. (Photo by Ron Barry)

Below: Madi Collins. (Photo by Ron Barry)

Left: Addie Davidson. (Photo by Ron Barry)

Below: Addie Davidson keeps a point alive. (Photo by Ron Barry)