LETTER FROM THE HEAD OF SCHOOL & PRESIDENT

Welcome to our second annual publication combining Columns and our Annual Report. In these pages, we celebrate stories of our school-wide theme: "Lead with Light. Live with Love." Throughout the 2025-2026 academic year, this theme has been woven into our retreats, assemblies, and countless student activities under the Dome. As I reflect on what it has meant for our students, staff, and faculty to gather around this call to lead with light and live with love, I keep returning to one truth—that light and love are rarely found in isolation. They are found in service. When we serve one another, we are drawn closer together, into a deeper communion with our wider community and with each other. This has always been true at Holy Names Academy, where service is not an add-on to the curriculum but a way of living out our SNJM core values. In this issue, you will read about how that spirit of service has grown geographically. Our feature, "HNA Service Goes Global," shares how our students are now partnering with communities across borders, carrying the light of HNA further than ever before. I am continually struck by how service works in both ways: our students go out to give, and they return home changed—more connected, more grateful, more alive to their place in a larger human family.

In the spirit of light and love, I want to highlight our faculty and staff who serve in their roles with such passion, dedication, and care. Each day, they bring our mission and core values to life as they prepare young women for lives of service and leadership. Our community has also warmly embraced the new Head of School/President and Principal model of leadership at HNA, including the transition of Dr. Marianne Harris McGah '01 officially to the role of Principal, allowing me to focus fully on my responsibilities as Head of School/President. These are still early days, but already Marianne and I are lifted by the support of faculty and staff for this new model of partnership. I will miss my third-floor office where I had the joy of greeting nearly every student every day, but I am also enjoying my new second-floor office, next to the parlors, where I am even closer to greet and welcome you, our HNA community, when you come to visit!

Your continued support gives us the ability not only to make necessary leadership changes, but also to adapt and respond thoughtfully to the evolving needs of the young women we serve. Construction on our new Blessed Marie Rose Academic Support Center (Rose Center), dedicated to supporting the academic needs of all learners, and our new Counseling Center is complete, and the spaces are open for full use, making a real difference for so many of our students. We are also excited about our new website, re-designed to enhance the user's experience and to better tell HNA's story—particularly the unique advantages of an all-girls education—to a wider community beyond the Dome. None of this is possible without you. Your generosity, year after year, is itself an act of service and of love—it builds classrooms, opens doors, and carries our mission forward. In this edition of Columns, we are thrilled to offer a space for alumnae to celebrate each other's accomplishments, and in the Annual Report, we are honored to recognize the donors whose partnership helps HNA continue to thrive.

Together, may we continue to lead with light and live with love in service to one another and to the young women entrusted to our care.

With heartfelt appreciation,

Kim Dawson

HNA SERVICE GOES GLOBAL

Blessed Marie Rose Durocher, foundress of the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary, knew that one of the surest paths to developing the whole person—beyond academics, beyond the contemplation of the arts—is through "service alongside people who are poor or marginalized."

"Service Alongside"

– BLESSED MARIE ROSE DUROCHER

An HNA student often begins her journey of service believing she is the one extending help. What she discovers, again and again, is that the real transformation happens in her own heart, from the communion she feels when living and working alongside those she came to serve.

So it was this past spring for the 16 HNA students and two faculty chaperones who traveled 3,326 miles from Seattle to San Juan Jicayán, a small town in the state of Oaxaca, Mexico—400 miles southeast of Mexico City and 40 miles inland from the Pacific Coast. What began for them as a spring break service trip quickly became something more.

BUILDING MORE THAN A COURT

HNA partnered with Courts for Kids, a nonprofit that builds sports courts in communities around the world, creating safe spaces for children to play and be active. Founded by Derek and Selene Nesland, Courts for Kids describes its mission simply: "Transforming lives through building courts and cultural exchange." Each project is tailored to the community it serves and draws volunteers of every age—from 7 to over 70—who work side by side pouring concrete for courts and building relationships for good. Communities that receive a court often report something harder to measure than square footage: a renewed sense of youth engagement and local community identity.

In San Juan Jicayán, indigenous Mixtecan land, that spirit of shared labor has a name: tequio—community work undertaken together, for one another. It became the guiding principle of the week.

> "As we worked on the court, we were able to live out a word called 'tequio.' ... Having this as our guiding principle, we devoted ourselves to working as one with the community and embracing their culture."
> - CAMILLE CRABTREE '27

The court rose quickly, not only because of the volunteers, but also because the local community, inspired, joined in. They came with building resources, with welcome signs, or with just their working hands. They were there the day the HNA group arrived, tired from the long bus ride from Oaxaca City. That community welcome was only the beginning of the warmth and connection to come. Local children taught

"I learned from the community that when we give of ourselves, we receive back tenfold."

- JULIA BRADLER '26

the HNA students Mixtecan words like chumi (cat) and tikuvo (butterfly). A craftsman gifted the group jícara cups after showing them the earrings, masks, and waist-loomed textiles his family made by hand. Five women cooked breakfast, lunch, and dinner every day and, as a farewell gift, gave each student a headscarf like the ones they wore while serving. The group of HNA volunteers was even welcomed into a quinceañera celebration for a young woman from the community, Ivanna, and they all danced late into the night as the music carried them throughout the town.

WHAT THE STUDENTS CARRIED HOME

For each student, the trip's deepest lessons were less about construction and more about connection.

Gabby Chavez Graves '27 felt it from the first night: "They showed me what community truly is by always having each other's backs, bringing joy to everyone, and being so welcoming... I have never felt so close to a c ommunity, not even my own."

For Clare Tilghman-Walsh '27, the challenge of connecting across a language barrier became its own lesson in grace. As the trip went on, she noted, "I felt more confident because of how much grace and patience they've shown. I also want to be a much more generous person and show people I don't know well the amount of love they've shown me."

Mary Stender '28 was struck by the sheer generosity of strangers: "Every workday, people from around the community came to work on the court, even if they had no connection except that they live here. They have given much more to me than I could ever give back to them, and they have taught me so much about caring about people, even if you do not know them well."

On the group's last day, the whole town gathered to celebrate the finished court with traditional dances, music, a volleyball tournament, and an awards ceremony recognizing the community members who had helped build the new community court.

THE JOURNEY CONTINUES

The San Juan Jicayán trip is only the beginning. Next year, HNA is sponsoring two more international service opportunities: a trip to Costa Rica in February and to Zambia in June. Each carries forward the same charism that has guided HNA since its founding—a dedication to justice and service that transforms the giver as much as it does the receiver.

"We left with our hearts filled..."

In two hours at Food Lifeline, members of the HNA faculty and staff packed 10,800 pounds of food for distribution to local food banks.

STARTING THE YEAR WITH COMMUNITY SERVICE

HNA faculty and staff began their school year with gloves on, picking, sorting, and practicing good posture as they squatted to lift heavy objects, building community around service projects. Faculty Inservice began in three locations throughout the Seattle area. One group cut back blackberry bushes on the Burke-Gilman trail with Green Seattle Partnership. Another group sorted and filled boxes of food at Food Lifeline. A third group went to Westside Baby to sort, organize, and distribute boxes of diapers and baby wipes. At the community gathering that followed, each group reported a deeper awareness of the challenges of our community and a shared joy in working arm-in-arm with their co-workers for a worthy cause.

HNA'S COMMITMENT TO AGAPE CONTINUES

In the summer of 2026, 20 students participated in the annual Agape Service Project, learning about and supporting the farm-working community in Whatcom County, Washington.

Service by the Numbers

Service as a way of learning and forming students' foundations continues to thrive at HNA. This past 2025-2026 school year:

21,600+
hours were collectively served locally by HNA students.

82
students volunteered 100+ hours each.

43
seniors participated in the Senior Theology service-learning elective community volunteer program.

Congratulations, Class of 2026!

The 142 members of the Class of 2026 brought honor to HNA and a shared pride with fellow HNA alums with their distinct academic, athletic, and artistic achievements. Their volunteer service made our world a better place. Welcome, Class of 2026, to the HNA alumnae community!

GREETINGS FROM THE HNA ALUMNAE BOARD EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The 2026-2027 HNA Alumnae Board Executive Committee met in August to kick off planning actions for the upcoming full year of alum engagements! A huge THANK YOU to the 2025-2026 Alumnae Board, whose names are listed in the Annual Report section, for all the events they so thoughtfully planned and carefully executed. Representing alumnae from the 1950s, '60s, '80s, '90s, '00s, and '10s, the 34-member Board met regularly and worked closely with the Head of School to offer meaningful opportunities for connection for HNA alumnae. They produced co-chairs and committees for the Young Alumnae Holiday Social, Alumnae Luncheon, Alumnae Family Easter Egg Hunt, 50th-Year/50+ Reunion, BIPOC Networking Event, and Wine Tasting Event.

Members of the HNA Alumnae Board are active volunteers in our community, celebrating their common Cougar pride.

This year, the Board has 28 members and is starting a new committee beyond the specific event committees: an Engagement Committee—finding simple, but effective ways to reach out to the larger HNA alumnae community unable to attend the planned events.

INTRODUCING HNA'S NEW DIRECTOR OF ALUMNAE RELATIONS

EMILY KLAUSER BASSETT '95

The deadline for the application, complete with a resume, cover letter, educational history, and three names of recommendation was tomorrow. I had just submitted my retirement papers following my final position in the US Navy as Commanding Officer and Professor of Naval Science at the University of Washington's Naval ROTC program when I learned HNA was hiring for the Director of Alumnae Relations position.

In my four years of Naval ROTC at Boston University following my HNA graduation in 1995, and in my 27 years in the Navy, climbing through the promotion and selection system, training in warfare, navigation, and nuclear engineering, I had never written a resume. So, I did what anyone under an unreasonable deadline would do today: I went to Claude, Anthropic's AI tool.

I uploaded my Navy bio, my LinkedIn profile, and the HNA job description. Of all my awards, recognition, honors, and decorations earned over 17 duty stations, seven deployments, and two Command tours, Claude thought that only one award belonged on my resume: Holy Names Academy 2019 Distinguished Alumna. Claude was right. That recognition came at one of the hardest moments in my career, and I'll never forget how supported I felt when Aoife Gallagher Groppo '00, then the Director of Alumnae Relations, reached out to me, and reminded me of my roots—roots that grounded me throughout my career, and now, are stabilizing me in my welcome home.

This community formed my foundation. My new mission, during this second phase of my life, is to give back. Thank you for the outpouring of support, welcoming me back. Now let me welcome you back to your home under the Dome.

50th-YEAR/50+ REUNION

Each year, alumnae celebrating 50 or more years since graduation gather to celebrate the joy of connection, love, health, and the friendships that strengthen our bonds to each other and to Holy Names Academy. This past May, the 50th-Year/50+ Reunion started with a beautiful morning Mass celebrated at the HNA chapel, hosted by the Cadets Class of 1976, who were celebrating 50 years since they threw their graduation caps. Other classes celebrating milestone anniversaries were the Classes of '71, '66, '61 and '56. Six alums from the Class of 1951 celebrated their 75th reunion! After Mass, HNA hosted a celebratory program, social time, school tours, refreshments, and individual class photos. A huge thank you to the Alumnae Board for all the planning and execution support required to ensure this event's success.

ALUMNAE WINE TASTING

What could be better than enjoying fine wine with friends? Enjoying fine wine with friends under the Dome! In June, alumnae spanning 69 years, from the Classes of 1953 to 2022, gathered with their guests in the cool breeze of the HNA open air patio, in the comfort of the welcoming sofas in HNA's historic parlors, and on HNA's familiar floorboards, all while sampling delicious wine from local vineyards. A huge thank you to Damsel Cellars, Dineen Vineyards (an alum parent-owned winery), Alveare Winery, and Virtue Cellars for their generosity in sharing the proceeds with HNA.

ALUMNAE UPDATES

Diane Kranak Hamilton '63 provided an update to share her special joy with all of us! The love of her life took her to her HNA Senior Prom, and they were married for 58 years! She has two daughters, seven grandchildren, and 21 great-grandchildren. Diane enjoyed varied careers before settling into her destined profession as a sanitation and housekeeping director and is grateful to God for her good health. She lives on an animal sanctuary where she gardens a lot and gets to love on rescued animals of all shapes and sizes, tending to their feedings and care, and grieving over the ones they cannot save. She is a helper, enjoys the friendships of all her visitors, and loves her family for letting her live such a good life in her senior years.

Nora Carria '82 received a nomination for Best of the PNW for her bridal alteration business, Victoria's Bridal Couture.

Wendy Paxton Parsons '66 (L) and her sister Jan Paxton '69 share their "Where in the World are HNA Alums" card from their Western Europe biking tour trip on the Rhine River. Get your card by going to www.holynames-sea.org/alumnae/stay-connected Swannee Rivers Burner '82, a Skipper alumna, is now enjoying life as an empty nester with her husband James, and embracing long-awaited travel, with recent adventures to Vegas, Paris, London, and New York for the iconic New Year's Eve ball drop. They live in Renton, WA, where Swannee works as both a teacher and an author. Her newest creative venture is a toddler-friendly coloring book series, My Big Simple & Fabulous Coloring Book for Toddlers. In the picture, she is holding her first children's book release. She loves seeing alumnae updates and sends a warm hello to her HNA family.

Terry Wittman '72 shared this photo of the Class of 1972 turning 72 this year! The Class of 1972 Reunion Committee has worked hard to find former classmates, including those who did not graduate with them. They were a graduating class of 162 and have renewed friendships with about 10 classmates who left the end of junior year. This reunion was held at the Seattle Yacht Club Elliott Bay Outstation in Magnolia where they shared lunch and started to plan their next event together!

Mary Pugel '73 completed 16 years as Chief of Staff in the President's Office at Wake Forest University (Winston Salem, NC) in 2021 and continues to work part-time in the Office of the President Emeritus there. She returns frequently to Seattle and most recently spent two weeks in Munich, Vienna, and London.

Annual Report

2025-2026

LETTER FROM THE BOARD PRESIDENT

Dear Holy Names Academy Community,

As we reflect on the 2025-2026 school year, there is so much to celebrate and so much for which to be grateful. This Annual Report offers an opportunity to look back on a remarkable year at Holy Names Academy—to recognize the accomplishments of our students, the dedication of our faculty and staff, and the extraordinary community whose support makes the HNA experience possible.

The 2025-2026 theme: "Lead with Light. Live with Love." beautifully reflected the spirit of HNA throughout the year. We saw it in students who challenged themselves in the classroom, served others with compassion, competed and performed with confidence, and grew more deeply in their faith. We saw it in the faculty and staff who believe whole-heartedly in HNA's mission and dedicated themselves to educating and empowering young women. And we saw it in the families, alumnae, donors, and friends who continued to invest in HNA and its future.

As a graduate of Holy Names Academy and President of the Board of Trustees, I have experienced this community from different perspectives over the years. While much has evolved, what makes HNA so special has remained constant: a commitment to developing young women of faith and purpose who are prepared to use their talents in service to others.

The pages that follow capture just some of what that mission looked like during the past year—from outstanding academic achievement and meaningful service to athletics, the arts, STEM, faith formation, and the many experiences that brought our community together. Behind every accomplishment were students willing to challenge themselves, faculty and staff encouraging them along the way, and a community committed to providing the opportunities and support they needed to thrive.

None of these accomplishments would have been possible without the generosity of our donors. This past year, the Academy provided $2.53 million in tuition assistance from annual fundraising and interest-bearing accounts through the thoughtful stewardship of its endowment program, helping open the doors of an HNA education to more young women. We also celebrated a remarkable milestone with the Class of 1961, highlighted in the following pages, as their class endowment reached $250,000 after 20 years of giving. The HNA Fund exceeded its goal by 17%, raising nearly $1.4 million to support the day-to-day essentials of the Academy. Together, these gifts create opportunities for our students, strengthen exceptional programs, support our faculty and staff, and help ensure that HNA's mission continues to flourish. Please know, every gift, at every level, is an investment in our students and in the women they are becoming.

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, thank you for believing in Holy Names Academy and for the many ways you support its mission. As we celebrate all that was accomplished during the 2025-2026 school year and look ahead to all that is still to come, I am incredibly grateful for this community and excited for HNA's future.

May we continue to lead with light and live with love.

With gratitude,

Jennifer Bosa Sorensen '00

Class of 1961

Every path begins with someone willing to light the way. A single candle can illuminate the next step, and when its flame is shared, its light is not diminished. Instead, it grows brighter.

The theme "Lead with Light. Live with Love." is beautifully embodied by the Class of 1961 Scholarship Endowment. Twenty years ago, five classmates gathered over pizza and imagined a new way to support Holy Names Academy students. What began as a simple conversation became the Academy's first class scholarship endowment.

The Class of 1961's vision sparked a tradition of philanthropy that continues to expand access to a Holy Names Academy education today. What those five women could not have known was that their idea would become more than a scholarship fund—it would become a guiding light. Today, the Academy has 15 class scholarship endowments with more than $1.1 million invested, helping provide tuition assistance to 35% of students each year. Since 2006, the Class of 1961 has raised more than $250,000 for its scholarship fund, far surpassing its original goal of $50,000.

An endowment is an investment fund carefully stewarded by the Academy's Board of Trustees to provide annual returns. Because the principal remains invested, it becomes a perpetual source of support, helping ensure that every qualified young woman has the opportunity to experience a Holy Names Academy education, regardless of her family's financial circumstances.

A SPARK BECOMES A BEACON

As the Class of 1961 celebrates its 65th reunion, its members continue to encourage other alumnae to dream big and work together for the future of the Academy.

Reflecting on the origins of the endowment, Dorene Centioli McTigue '61 recalls, "We gathered to plan for our 50th reunion and wanted to do something for the Academy and students. The idea of establishing a scholarship in our class name seemed possible, and we hoped other classes would hear about it and do the same—it seems to be working!"

That hope has become a reality. The Class of 1961's success demonstrated what can happen when a group of women unites around a shared purpose. Their endowment not only created opportunities for students but also inspired many others to follow their example. Joan Spiller Saxton '61 added, "We stepped up as a class to this novel idea, and the fact that other classes have followed in our footsteps is the highest praise."

For Sister Mary Ellen Robinson, SNJM '61, the scholarship's success was ignited by the power of collaboration. "Together we can accomplish what we cannot do alone," she says. "Being part of a team effort to create resources for the young women of HNA was an invitation I could not refuse." Her message to fellow alumnae is simple: identify a common goal, work together, and trust that your collective efforts can make a lasting difference. When we share our light, it grows brighter.

LIGHTING FUTURES THROUGH EDUCATION

For members of the Class of 1961, the endowment is ultimately about opening doors for future generations. Dorene remains deeply grateful for the education she received at Holy Names Academy and hopes today's students recognize the value of the opportunities before them. That belief is echoed by lead donor Suzie Burke '61, who views the endowment's quarter-million-dollar milestone through the lens of possibility. When asked what the achievement means to her, she answers simply: "More girls will receive a great education!"

The impact of her statement is evident in today's students. The Class of 2026 included four National Merit Scholarship Semifinalists and earned admission to 235 colleges and universities, receiving a combined $48 million in academic scholarships and awards.

Suzie sees those accomplishments as proof that HNA students are poised to make an even greater impact than previous generations. "They are even more qualified to do more with what they have learned and experienced after HNA than we were in 1961," she says, and encourages them to, "Get on with it!"

KEEPING THE FLAME ALIVE

Although the Class of 1961 has reached a remarkable milestone, its members do not see $250,000 as a finish line. Instead, they view it as part of an ongoing commitment to future students.

"Being the first class feels great!" says Suzie. "But we have to keep building the endowment as long as we are here and make gifts in our wills too!" Her perspective reflects the very nature of an endowment—a gift designed not only for today's students, but for generations of young women yet to come.

The women of the Class of 1961 consider themselves fortunate to have received an exceptional education, formed lifelong friendships, and benefited from the many opportunities that followed. "What I treasure most are the relationships I formed with my classmates," says Joan. "I remain close with several of them, and our endowment is a reflection of the enduring bond we share." As Holy Names Academy welcomes the Class of 2030, it is committed to ensuring those same opportunities remain available to future students.

Looking back on what their class has accomplished together, Sister Mary Ellen offers an inspired reflection: "Together we could build something good for young women—something that would outlast us."

Twenty years ago, five classmates shared a pizza and an idea. Today, that idea has grown into a quarter-million-dollar endowment, inspired other classes to establish scholarship funds of their own, and helped create opportunities for countless students. The women of the Class of 1961 proved that generosity does not diminish when it is shared—it multiplies. Like candles lighting one another, they continue to illuminate the way forward.

"Together we could build something good...that would outlast us."

CREATING MOMENTS THAT MATTER

One Day for HNA, the Academy's annual day of giving, was a remarkable demonstration of community commitment to the mission of Holy Names Academy. On February 4, more than 370 alumnae, parents, faculty and staff, trustees, grandparents, and friends came together to contribute more than $81,000! Reflecting the theme, Your Gift. Her Moment., each contribution helped make possible the moments that shape a young woman's high school journey—moments of discovery, confidence, leadership, and purpose. Together, these gifts invest not only in each student's experience today, but also in the person she will become and the impact she will make in the world.

MORE THAN 370 donors CONTRIBUTED MORE THAN $81,000!

LEGACY OF LOVE

Lacey London

For more than two decades, Lacey London has helped shape the Holy Names Academy experience for generations of students. Now entering her 21st year, she has served as the Academy's Athletic Director since 2010, while also contributing as a teacher, coach, mentor, and steadfast supporter of the school's mission. Though she is not an alumna, Lacey considers HNA her home, crediting the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary with helping shape the leader she is today. The compassion, encouragement, and sense of belonging she found at Holy Names Academy inspired her enduring commitment to giving back.

Lacey earned a B.A. in Physical Education and Health from Western Washington University and a master's degree in Coaching Leadership and Athletic Administration from Concordia University Irvine. Throughout her career, she has received numerous professional honors, including Metro League Athletic Director of the Year on two separate occasions, the NIAAA (National Interscholastic Athletic Administrators Association) State Award of Merit, and the WSSAAA (Washington Secondary School Athletic Administrators Association) Athletic Administrator Service Award. Yet, what she values most is the opportunity to support students as they discover their strengths, build confidence, and form lasting connections under the Dome. Hers is a legacy of service, community, and care that reflects the spirit of living—and giving—with love.

WHAT INSPIRES YOU TO CONTINUE SUPPORTING THE SCHOOL THROUGH YOUR GIVING, AND HOW HAS YOUR CONNECTION TO THE COMMUNITY SHAPED THAT COMMITMENT?

The mission of HNA and the SNJM core values are at the heart of my own personal mission. I believe in the work we are doing at HNA and am constantly in awe of my colleagues and their many gifts. We get to empower young women to take risks, fail, learn, and grow daily. I love watching confidence come alive in our students as they master a new skill in the classroom or out on the sports field. While it is fun to watch them grow from wide-eyed 9th graders in PE to polished seniors as they walk across the stage at graduation, the true celebration is when our alumnae come back to visit and update us on the great things they are doing out in the world.

Lacey with Charlie the Cougar.

AS BOTH A TEACHER AND DONOR, WHAT DO YOU HOPE YOUR SUPPORT MAKES POSSIBLE FOR CURRENT STUDENTS AND FUTURE GENERATIONS OF YOUNG WOMEN?

I hope that my support provides accessibility, so HNA students can participate and try new activities without barriers. I would love to see HNA's co-curricular programs continue to shine, allowing our students to experience state-of-the-art facilities and equipment along with amazing teachers, coaches, and mentors.

CAN YOU SHARE A MOMENT FROM YOUR TIME AT THE SCHOOL THAT REMINDS YOU WHY INVESTING IN THIS COMMUNITY MATTERS?

I have had the opportunity to watch thousands of students walk through our halls. I have heard the chants at sports assemblies and had to wear ear plugs during the Rose Games because the competition was so intense and the cheering was so loud! The HNA community provides a safe space for our students to be their true authentic selves and show up for each other.

IF YOU COULD SHARE ONE MESSAGE WITH SOMEONE CONSIDERING MAKING THEIR FIRST GIFT TO HNA, WHAT WOULD YOU WANT THEM TO KNOW ABOUT THE IMPACT OF SUPPORTING OUR STUDENTS?

A gift to HNA opens doors for our girls and allows our community to highlight their many gifts. The women who walk these hallways are going to be the leaders and change makers of tomorrow. I see it every time an alum comes back to visit. Our girls walk out of HNA and into their next phase of life with a level of confidence that is not common for an 18-year-old. They believe in their abilities, their voices, and what they can contribute to the world. At HNA, students can find their passion, challenge themselves, and grow all while living out the core values of the SNJM sisters and the mission of Holy Names Academy.

DECK THE DOME 2025: LEAD WITH LIGHT

Building Spaces Where Every Student is Seen

On a December evening lit by the Dome and Christmas spirit, the Holy Names Academy community upheld its long-standing tradition and gathered for Deck the Dome 2025, which raised more than $175,000 to expand HNA's Academic Support and Counseling Centers.

The evening also provided a chance to recognize Varonica Ragan, mother of Emily Ragan '27, named Volunteer of the Year for her outstanding service as the Parent Board HNA/O'Dea Liaison—and for her hand in #2SchoolsOneSpirit, which keeps O'Dea and HNA closely connected. Through her dedication, she has played an integral role in shaping HNA's extended community.

Last year's theme: "Lead with Light. Live with Love." became the community's call to action. Alumnae, parents, faculty, and friends showed up for the programs that quietly hold so many students up: peer-to-peer tutoring, academic accommodations, individualized learning and health support, and mental health services that meet students where they are.

That commitment was quickly made real. By summer 2026, construction was underway on the new Blessed Marie Rose Learning Center (Rose Center) and Counseling Center—welcoming, student-centered spaces where HNA's academic support specialists and school counselors can meet students wherever they are, academically, socially, or emotionally.

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR HNA STUDENTS:

- Construction of the Blessed Marie Rose Learning Center and Counseling Center completed in August 2026, creating centralized spaces for student success and well-being, in time for the new school year.
- The new facilities expand access to individualized academic support, tutoring, accommodations, and personal counseling—resources that foster confidence and personal growth.
- Counselors are better equipped to collaborate and offer holistic, tailored support.
- The project reflects HNA's promise that every student feels seen, supported, and empowered to thrive.

What began as a fund-a-need initiative is already something tangible and lasting. As walls rose and plans took shape, so did a renewed commitment to the well-being of every student who walks through HNA's doors.

Save the Date for Deck the Dome 2026
Saturday, December 5

Join us as we celebrate the Christmas spirit! Proceeds from Deck the Dome 2026 will support HNA's SAFE (Student Aid For Education) Fund. Investing in Futures, Transforming Lives

Raising the paddle for HNA!

Mary Herche (L), Liz Eldredge Swift '71, and Kim Dawson, Head of School & Principal.

Enjoying the evening with friends.

Each spring, CHEER brings the Holy Names Academy community together in support of a shared mission: opportunity and belonging for every student. This year, more than $400,000 was raised for HNA's scholarship endowment, funding need-based tuition assistance for current and future students.

The evening opened with the presentation of the Blessed Marie Rose Award to Mary Herche, Honorary Alumna, mother of Katie Herche Welch '02. For more than 28 years, Mary's leadership, service, and steady commitment to Holy Names Academy have shaped generations of students and families. This year, she was named HNA's first Honorary Alumna '26—a fellow Cadet alongside her daughter.

A highlight of the evening was the Fund-a-Need presentation, featuring alumnae Clara Kang-Crosby '22 and Stella Quinn '24, who shared personal reflections on how tuition assistance impacted their HNA experience.

Both alumnae described how an HNA education gave them the confidence to pursue their ambitions with purpose and conviction. Stella reflected on the profound personal growth she experienced during her four years under the Dome:

"I came into Holy Names worried that I would never find my place, and I left knowing who I was, who I wanted to become, and how I would achieve that."

Clara echoed that sentiment, sharing how Holy Names Academy challenged her to dream bigger and pursue those dreams with confidence:

"Surrounded by a community like this, I learned that I can do anything. Holy Names gives you the foundation to take control of your life, imagine what is possible, and be able to pursue it with kindness, grace, and determination."

Together, their stories demonstrated how tuition assistance does more than make an HNA education possible. It opens doors, nurtures potential, and gives students opportunities that help them grow into confident, compassionate leaders.

Every paddle raised at CHEER helps make that journey possible for the next generation of young women under the Dome.
