TEACHER BOOK BINS

Teachers who need books for their classroom library or to tie in with curriculum will have a book bin at the fair. Take a book(s) from their bin, and make sure you tell the cashier that it is a book for a teacher.

BOOK FAIR HOMEPAGE

https://bookfairs.scholastic.com/bf/oakridgeelementaryschool10

SHOPPING TIMES

Parents/Families can shop during their student's class shopping time, following the Veterans' Day Assembly on the 11th, or at the Carnival on the 13th. You can shop 24/7 online by visiting our Book Fair Homepage beginning November 4th and ending November 17th.

Through the Share the Fair program you can round up your Book Fair purchase as you pay. Share the Fair funds will be used to help those in need to make a Book Fair Purchase.

WELCOME to our

FALL INTO A BOOK FAIR

November 9-13
9:10am-2:50pm
& 5:30pm-7:30pm Friday,
Nov. 13th during the
PTA Carnival

ALL THINGS BOOK FAIR

All things about the Book Fair can be found in the Media Center section on Oakridge's website under Book Fair.

You can find:

- Book Fair hours
- Class purchasing schedule
- Interactive book fair flyer
- Book fair videos
- Photos
- Games

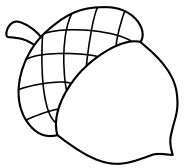

Check back often as the information will be updated before, during and after the Book Fair.

PAYMENT OPTIONS

We accept cash and checks made out to Oakridge Elementary. We accept most debit/credit cards.

An eWallet is an easy and cashless way for your student to shop at the Book Fair. You can also share your child's eWallet link so grandparents, family and friends can add money to it.

Scan the QR Code to find directions on how to set up an eWallet or follow the link to https://bookfairs.scholastic.com/content/fairs/ewallet.html

VOLUNTEERS

To make our Book Fair run smoothly we need lots of Book Fair Volunteers.

Volunteers are needed to:

- Set up the Book Fair
- Help students shop
- Work the register
- Take down the Book Fair

Book Fair volunteers will receive a Book Fair discount for each shift worked.

Look in Parent Square for information about signing up to volunteer or call (405)735-4536.

Bring .25 to play one of the games at the Book Fair!!