AASPA Announces Election of New Board Leadership

OVERLAND PARK, Kan. – October 19, 2026 — The American Association of School Personnel Administrators announced the election of four new members to its Executive Board. Dr. Vincent Citarelli, Assistant Superintendent at Garnet Valley School District in Glen Mills, PA, was announced as President for 2026-2027 at AASPA's Annual Business Meeting, October 15, 2026. Dr. Amy Dillon Assistant Superintendent for Human Resources at Park Hill School District in Kansas City, MO, has been elected to serve as President for 2027- 2028. Dr. Sara Skretta, Senior Director of Accreditation, Placement & Licensure / Certification Officer at the University of Nebraska in Lincoln, NE, will serve as Region 5 Representative and Adena Walker, Chief Human Resources Officer at City Schools of Decatur in Decatur, GA, will serve as Region 6 Representative.

Dr. Amy Dillon has been a member for 22 years. She served as the Region 5 Representative from 2023 to 2026 and has served on various committees as well as Chair for the Recognitions Committee. Amy has presented at numerous AASPA virtual and in-person events.

"I am deeply honored and excited to serve as President-Elect of AASPA. For more than two decades, AASPA has been instrumental in my professional growth, challenging me to think differently, inspiring me to lead with purpose, and connecting me with outstanding colleagues who share a deep commitment to serving students through exceptional human resources leadership. Giving back to this organization has been one of the most rewarding aspects of my career, and I look forward to continuing that work by serving our amazing members as we advance AASPA's mission to advocate, innovate, and educate", said Dr. Dillon.

The AASPA Executive Board is a 10-member governance body comprising elected members. Board candidates are selected by the AASPA Nominating Committee and voted on by members during a general election.
