Our Mission

QSI International School of Shenzhen's mission is to empower students and to promote Success for All.

How does QSI prepare your child for future success?

Mastery learning requires students to show mastery of knowledge or skills before moving on to the next learning task. QSI teachers recognize that mastery can be demonstrated in a variety of ways. Performance-based assessment is just one of many ways that learning at QSI Shenzhen leads to Success For All. QSI curriculum is USA-based, teacher-generated, and accredited by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools.

Intensive English (IE) is a QSI program to help students improve their English language proficiency to grade-appropriate levels. Students are identified for the IE program during admissions. IE classes take place during the regular Literature and Writing periods. Students who enter QSI in middle school grades must show an appropriate level of English fluency before they are admitted to the QSI secondary school (high school), measured by a series of assessments including the NWEA MAP test.
