What Is A Free Store?

At Common Ground Free Store, everything is free - clothing, shoes, linens, household items, books, toys, coffee and meals. No income requirements, no questions, and no scrutiny, only the support of folks who care. Common Ground offers a sense of community and a safe, warm, and welcoming space for anyone regardless of circumstances. Open five days a week right in Delaware, Ohio, Common Ground is a community-based nonprofit engaging churches, businesses, organizations, and individuals in sharing what they have with others.

Common Ground serves prepared community meals five times a week to anyone who shows up at our door in need. No embarrassing questions, no income requirements, and no scrutiny. Just a hot meal served by our staff and volunteers who care about our community. Our dining room serves as a comfortable place to sit, relax and connect with others; we also offer meals for carry out. It's all free, so come on in!
