SPECIAL EVENTS

BEAD-IFUL BRACELETS • Wednesday, November 4 • 6-8 pm
Ages 18 & Up: The Loose Bead Society will teach you how to create a beautiful zig-zag bracelet with crystals and seed beads. Registration is required and begins Wednesday, October 21 at brookfieldlibrary.com.

SHOW US YOUR BEST NATURE PHOTOS • Thursday, November 5 • 7 pm
Let your "wild side" out and participate in a slide show of your favorite images. Photographers wishing to share should bring 20-25 digital photos on a USB drive or SD card, and we will project them for all to enjoy. Please arrive between 6:15-6:45 p.m.

ALL-DAY FIBER ARTS FANATICS • Saturday, November 7 • 10 am-4 pm
Bring your own materials and join other fiber arts fanatics!

VIRTUAL WELCOME TO MEDICARE • Wednesday, November 11 • 5:30-7:30 pm
Wisconsin's State Health Insurance Assistance Program will provide an overview of Medicare, including Parts A, B, C, and D, as well as Supplemental Policies and Savings Programs. Please note that this is a virtual presentation via Zoom that you may view in the Library or from home. Registration is required at brookfieldlibrary.com.

LAMBEAU LADIES • Monday, November 16 • 7 pm
Long before NFL players had teams of trainers, nutritionists, therapists, agents, and other specialists, the dynastic Green Bay Packers of the 1960s relied on a different kind of support staff: their wives. Mother and daughter Laura Kostelnik Biskupic and Katherine Biskupic tell the remarkable, largely untold story of the women who helped to keep the Lombardi-era Packers performing at a championship level.

MAKE A CARD FOR A SENIOR • Friday, November 27 • 9 am-4 pm
All ages: Stop by to make a holiday card for a local senior. While supplies last. Then join us for festive cheer on Tuesday December 22, when we will deliver the cards to the Brookfield Senior Center and sing carols.
