Grissom Award

Oldham County Schools' Exceptional Children Services Program has been named a recipient of the 2026 Grissom Award for Innovation in Special Education by the Kentucky Board of Education.

The Grissom Award is presented annually to Kentuckians or Kentucky organizations who demonstrate outstanding dedication to improving achievement for students with disabilities. It honors leadership, commitment and service in advancing high student achievement through instructional equity and by closing the achievement gap for all children.

This recognition celebrates the district's work preparing students with disabilities for college and careers after graduation, including the Young Adult Transition Program, Pre-Employment Transition Services, JAG Kentucky, skilled trades internships and more.

Congratulations to this incredible team!
