Michigan Seal of Biliteracy

What is the Seal of Biliteracy?

The Seal of Biliteracy is an award given to graduating seniors by the Michigan Department of Education in recognition of students who have attained proficiency in English and one or more languages by high school graduation.

How do I Qualify?

Qualified students have:

- Met graduation requirements
- Demonstrated Intermediate High proficiency on world language assessment(s)

What are the Benefits?

The Michigan Seal of Biliteracy is designed to:

- Provide potential future employers with a method of identifying people with language and biliteracy skills
- Provide colleges and universities with a method to recognize and give credit to applicants for attainment of high level skills in multiple languages
- Prepare students with 21st century skills that will benefit them in the labor market and the global society
