Housing Insecurity

Tenafly Public Schools is committed to supporting students experiencing housing insecurity. The McKinney-Vento Act is a federal las that ensures students without stable housing can stay in school and receive the services they need to ensure a free and appropriate education. If you are experiencing housing insecurity, please contact the district Registrar Office by clicking HERE.