Member Corona also praised North Side High School's jazz band, the Wildsiders, for their outstanding performance at the Indiana School Boards Association (ISBA) State Conference. He expressed pride in the students for representing FWCS so well, particularly given their early morning travel to the event.

Board Member Maria Norman congratulated South Side High School's boys' soccer team on winning its sectional championship and advancing to regional competition. She also highlighted the FWCS Clothing Bank's October donation drive, encouraging community members to donate bras at designated collection locations, including the FACE Center, Clothing Bank, and Associated Churches.
