UNIVERSITY of DAYTON

Outline of Aid for Entering 3 & 4 Year Army Scholarship Cadets 2026-27

The University of Dayton has supported our Army ROTC program by committing to cover Army scholarship cadet's annual room and board costs for up to 8 semesters. We do this using a combination of the cadet's university merit scholarship and fed/state/university need-based grants.

2026-27 direct costs comprise of: full-time tuition ($51,910), double-occupancy room ($10,940) and meal plan ($7,050) for total direct costs of $69,900.

2026-27 Year 1

ARMY 4 Year: 4 year winners will receive 100% of tuition costs. Cadets will also receive monthly subsistence allowance ($420/mos for 8 mos) and book/supply allowance ($600/semester).

UD 4 Year: For 4 year winner FAFSA filers, university funds will be used to cover remaining room and board costs after fedl/state grant(s) applied. If cadet does not qualify for any federal aid or is not a FAFSA filer, university funds will be used to cover all of room and board (up to $17,990). Not eligible for university textbook scholarship.

Estimated out-of-pocket balance for direct costs $0

ARMY 3 Year: 3 year winners do not receive Scholarship benefits until the beginning of their Sophomore year.
