English Language Development and Academic Achievement

- Moral Obligation
  - Do we believe that all students can and will learn in our schools in FUSD?

- Professional Obligation
  - Do we provide equitable access to the full curriculum for all students, particularly our ELs?

- Legal Obligation
  - Are we following federal and state law when educating ELs?

FUSD Family Communication Guide

Use this guide to know where to look, what you will find, and what action to take.

ENGLISH

	WHAT IT IS	WHAT YOU WILL FIND	YOUR NEXT STEP
ParentSquare	School communication app connecting you with your child's teacher, school, and counselors.	School announcements, staff messages, events, reminders, and forms.	Read messages, respond when needed, RSVP to events, review notifications, and message the teacher or counselor. Check regularly.
Q Parent Connect	Portal for viewing your child's school records and academic information.	Grades, classwork status, attendance, transcripts, test scores, and more.	Review grades, attendance, and classwork regularly. Contact the teacher, school, or district if something appears incorrect.
Teams / Zoom	Video and audio tools used for individual or group meetings, conferences, and workshops.	Virtual meetings and conferences with teachers, schools, the district, or community partners.	Open the invitation and join at the scheduled date and time. Test your device, sound, and internet connection beforehand.
Peachjar	Electronic flyer system sharing FUSD-approved programs and opportunities.	Activities, programs, sports, recreation, events, and enrichment offered by schools, the district, or the community.	Read flyers that interest your family. Use the registration link when available, and check often for new activities and resources.
Social Media	School and district social media channels used to share news, events, and highlights.	School activities, celebrations, stories, resources, and event reminders.	Follow your school and district accounts. Check posts for updates, highlights, and upcoming events.
