The Virgin Islands Department of Education (VIDE), St. Thomas-St. John District, informs parents, guardians, students, faculty, and staff that Lockhart K-8 School and Charlotte Amalie High School will be open today, Thursday, September 3, 2026, and will operate on their regular schedules.

Following yesterday's closure due to a major water pipe break that impacted both campuses, the necessary restoration has been completed to allow normal school operations to resume.

All students, faculty, and staff should report to their respective campuses at their regularly scheduled times. Parents and guardians are encouraged to continue monitoring official VIDE communication platforms for any important updates regarding any future school operations.
