Skill 13.4

Vowel Team: Unpredictable Multisyllable

In small-group intervention, we will learn to read and spell multisyllable words containing one or more unpredictable vowel team syllables.

Vowel Team Syllable	A vowel team syllable is two or more letters, side by side, pronounced as one vowel sound. A vowel team may be pronounced with a short, long, or unique vowel sound.
Unpredictable Vowel Team	A vowel sound is considered unpredictable when its spelling can be pronounced two ways, such as: • ie as in chief • ow as in snow • ea as in eagle • oo as in moon • ou as in house • ew as in mew • ie as in tie • ow as in owl • ea as in bread • oo as in book • ou as in touch • ew as in screw

untie	balloon	renew	follow cousin	cowboy	peanut	booklet yellow	believe	steady	towel county	cashew	bathroom	renew weather	season	football	achieve cousin for the	towel to dry football season is	the roasted cashew in this county	achieve a goal and follow the	math booklet to renew itself if	untie the balloon

© 2025 95 Percent Group LLC. All rights reserved.