Dear Foxview Choir Families,

The Foxview Choir Winter Concerts will take place on Tuesday, December 8th in the Foxview auditorium. Students have been putting forth great effort to prepare for their performance, and we are excited to have the opportunity to sing together for an audience!

Please carefully look over this letter. There is a lot of information to help us create a positive concert experience for our students and their audience members.

- Students should dress nicely for the evening's performance. Taking pride in our appearance and performance are important life lessons. NO ripped jeans.

- We have four choirs performing the evening of the concert. We ask you to please do your best to arrive at your scheduled time to help avoid congestion in our building.

- Concerts are an essential part of a performance based class. These concerts are a summative assessment of your student's skills. Since all performances are student assessments, they are expected to be at all concerts, unless they are ill or have a family emergency.
    - If your student is not at a concert, notification (e-mail, phone call, or note) from a parent or guardian is required explaining the absence. If at all possible, advance notification is appreciated to help with planning and concert preparation.
    - Students who miss the concert will need to make up that portion of their grade. It is a student's responsibility to discuss with their choir teachers a make up time. Students will be required to complete a singing make-up assignment with their teacher during workshop lessons.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact us.

We look forward to seeing all of you at the concert!
