WCCUSD TO HOST STATE OF OUR SCHOOLS BREAKFAST, HIGHLIGHT STUDENT SUCCESS, DISTRICT PRIORITIES, AND FUTURE VISION

RICHMOND – The West Contra Costa Unified School District (WCCUSD) will host its State of Our Schools Breakfast on Thursday, October 22, 2026, from 8 to 10 a.m. at De Anza High School. The event will bring together district leaders, students, staff, families, and community partners to celebrate student achievements, recognize outstanding contributions to education, and discuss the District's priorities and future direction.

Guests will enjoy breakfast prepared by WCCUSD's Food Services Department and live music from the award-winning El Cerrito High School Jazz Ensemble. The program will also feature a performance by the De Anza High School Choir and a presentation of colors by De Anza's Air Force Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps (AFJROTC).

Superintendent Cheryl Cotton will deliver remarks highlighting the District's progress, current challenges, and ongoing commitment to WCCUSD's strategic priorities of welcoming schools, courageous scholarship, and connected systems of support. The event will also recognize California State Superintendent of Public Instruction Tony Thurmond with the True North Award and honor three district staff with the District's Guiding Light Awards.

Attendees will also learn about WCCUSD's 2027–2030 Strategic Planning process and participate in discussions to help inform the District's future priorities.
