AT HOME PRACTICE

- Read independently for at least 20 minutes each night to strenghten reading skills and excercise your brain.
- Review and/or complete class notes, assignments and homework daily.
- Charge chromebooks nightly and bring it to school each day.

IMPORTANT

MAP TESTING

I know we will be home enjoying the Thanksgiving Holiday with family from the 23rd - 27th, but please keep in mind MAP Testing will begin December 1st-11th. PLEASE BE REVEIWING NOTES OVER THE BREAK

Reminders!

Don't forget!

- Basketball Tryouts will start Nov. 4th
- GAME DAY! Basketball Jamboree! Let's pack the stands Saturday, Nov.21st @ Alice Drive 10am as our Mighty Bantams face-off against Chesnut Oaks MS.
- Game Day: Monday, Nov. 30th @ Alice Drive 5pm.
- Let's Support our Student Council Fundrasier: Nothing Bundt Cakes. $8 per cake 10/28-11/13. Cakes to be delivered 12/3.

School Attendance, Truancy & Chronic Absenteeism: What Parents Need to Know

How many days has your child been absent from school over the past 4 weeks?
Was it just one sick day or two? What about the day they left early for the dentist?
Or the days you took your child out of school for a family vacation? It can be hard to keep track.
Missing a day here or there may not seem like a problem. But school absences add up quickly. Missing two days a month—excused or unexcused—can add up to a child being considered chronically absent. The good news; is when your child is in class it has a positive—powerful impact on their future.