Pedagogical Lead

(Permanent, full-time)

We are seeking a passionate early childhood teaching professional to join Little Saints as our Pedagogical Lead, guiding quality education and care through strong relationships, reflective practice and play-based learning.

As a member of the Little Saints leadership team, you will coach and support educators, strengthen pedagogical practice and help shape an engaging learning environment that values each child's unique journey.

Role Highlights

- Join the Little Saints leadership team in a bespoke facility within an established educational setting.
- Lead pedagogical development through coaching, collaboration and professional learning.
- Combine pedagogical leadership with a timetabled contact load of 0.5, designed to support the needs of the service.

The Role

All Saints' College commenced operating Little Saints in mid-2024 from its multi-million-dollar facility, Waabiny (Noongar for "play"), nestled in the heart of the picturesque 19-hectare grounds of the College's Bull Creek campus.

At Little Saints, we value each moment in a child's journey, connecting learning and growth through the power of play. Reporting to the Assistant Director of Junior School (Education and Care), and working closely with the Little Saints Coordinator, the Pedagogical Lead will guide teaching and learning across the service, support the ongoing development of educators and foster a culture of collaboration, reflection and continuous improvement.

Key Responsibilities:

- Lead and support the programming cycle across Little Saints, coaching educators in reflective, child-centred practice and implementation of the Early Years Learning Framework.
- Model high-quality early childhood pedagogy and support the Primary Carer model, nurturing strong relationships with children and families.
- Contribute to the Quality Improvement Plan and support compliance with the National Quality Framework and National Quality Standards.
- Coordinate relevant professional learning and support educators to strengthen their pedagogical understanding and practice.
- Work with families, specialists and external agencies to support children's wellbeing, inclusion and transition to Early Learning at All Saints' College.

- Support planning for the Three-Year-Old Kindergarten non-term time program and take on the person in day-to-day charge role when the Little Saints Coordinator or Assistant Director of Junior School (Education and Care) is absent.

About You

You are a qualified early childhood teacher who will bring a strong understanding of early childhood pedagogy and experience delivering high-quality education and care. With a collaborative and supportive approach, you will be confident coaching educators, guiding reflective practice and translating current research into meaningful learning experiences. You will value families as children's first and most influential teachers and share our commitment to play-based learning, responsive relationships and the holistic development of every child.

As our Pedagogical Lead, you will demonstrate:

- Sound knowledge of the Early Years Learning Framework, National Quality Framework and National Quality Standards, and their application in practice.
- Substantial early childhood teaching experience, including mentoring and coaching other educators to strengthen their practice.
- The ability to guide curriculum planning, mentor educators and foster a culture of collaboration and continuous improvement.
- High levels of discretion and confidentiality.
- Well-developed verbal and interpersonal communication skills with all ages.
- Current rights to work in Australia.
- A current Working with Children Check and TRBWA
- First Aid Certificate.

A Current First Aid and CPR Qualification - Education and Care, Asthma and Anaphylaxis management training, National Child Safety and Child Protection Training would all be highly regarded.

About Little Saints

Little Saints keep children at the heart of all that we do. We are innovative by nature and deeply committed to providing opportunities for learning that are in alignment with what is best for children and their development.

Providing opportunities for learning in nature forms part of our pedagogy as does understanding how children's play schemas provide us with windows into their stage of development and readiness for new opportunities. We know that this stage of learning and growth is imperative to future successful outcomes and are committed to prioritising the time and space for educators to form secure, responsive and joyful relationships with our little explorers.

Nestled within the broader All Saints' College campus, we value our community and the connections our children make within and beyond the fences of Waabiny. We believe wholeheartedly in our educators, and we strive to be a place where you can grow professionally with access to high quality professional learning, opportunities for career growth and access to mentoring and coaching.
