Re: Hagan Scholarship — Application Now Open, Deadline December 1, 2026

A personal word from a counselor is often what convinces a qualified student to apply. The Hagan Scholarship is a need-based merit scholarship worth up to $60,000 that gives goal-driven seniors the opportunity to graduate college debt-free. HSF has awarded 6,920 scholarships to students attending 745 colleges and universities in all 50 states and D.C. We awarded 1,326 new scholarships this year and can award up to 1,500 for 2027–2028; several students from the same school are often selected.

Please Encourage Seniors Who:

- Attend a U.S. public, private, charter, magnet, or STEM high school, regardless of citizenship.
- Have a 3.50 CGPA or higher, are goal-driven, and willing to work to achieve their goals.
- Have parents whose 2025 Adjusted Gross Household Income did not exceed $125,000.
- Will enroll in a four-year college or university in the fall 2027 semester.
- Will work 240 hours (non-family employment) from January 1, 2027, to September 1, 2027.

What Hagan Scholars Receive:

- Up to $7,500 each semester for up to eight semesters.
- $1,000 to purchase essential items for college.
- Free life-skills workshops, a personal Schwab brokerage account, HSF investment account to manage, and up to $8,000 for study abroad.
- Eligibility for a Hagan Graduate Scholarship worth up to $30,000.
- No application fee. FAFSA information is not required to apply.

Recognition for Your Students and School:
When a student is awarded a scholarship, we notify the high school counselor named on the student's application and provide an HSF-approved announcement that can be read during your awards ceremony, used in a school publication, or published in your local newspaper. Please ask your students to list you as their counselor when they apply.

Three brochures are enclosed for your counseling office, scholarship coordinator, and senior teachers. Please print additional copies from the HSF website and provide them to students you believe are eligible. Students can apply at haganscholarships.org/application. The application deadline is December 1, 2026. Scholarships will be awarded by May 1, 2027.

Sincerely,

Dan Hagan, Trustee
