Grading Reminder:

Just a friendly reminder that as of November 1st, we began to count the backwards direction of all letters and numbers as errors on all assessments (math concepts, math facts, spelling, and phonograms).

Sentence Practice:

You will notice that we are now practicing complete sentences with previous spelling words.

On our tests, each sentence will be worth 5 points. Students will need to remember to start each sentence with a capital, have the correct end mark, and use the correct spelling to receive the full points.

Friendly reminder: Please support us in the coming weeks by keeping Halloween candy at home! Sometimes it sneaks into backpacks.
