Dear Parents/Persons in Parental Relation:

Roslyn School District remains committed to supporting families by offering parent counseling and training sessions designed to help parents implement effective strategies at home. The techniques and tools shared are useful for all families and can support a wide range of learning needs.

Please see the attached schedule for session dates, times and topics that will be covered. All sessions will be held via Zoom. Please RSVP to the presenter listed for the session you plan to attend.

As always, please contact us directly with any questions or concerns.
