Synopsis

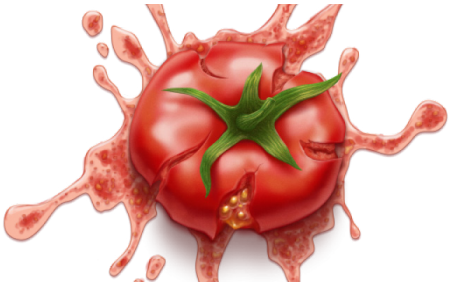

Welcome to the Renaissance, where the Black Plague has ceded power to the Puritans, farthingales and codpieces are the latest fashion trend, and the biggest celebrity in England is a playwright named William Shakespeare.

In the midst of all this excitement, brothers Nick and Nigel Bottom are trying to keep their acting company afloat. In a desperate attempt to out-Bard the Bard, Nick consults with a soothsayer, who informs him that the future of theatre involves acting, singing, and dancing – sometimes all at once!

As the Bottom brothers strive to write the world's very first "musical", they find themselves caught in a bitter battle with the Bard and the play's the thing.

Something Rotten! is a hysterical, joyous celebration of everything you love about Broadway.

Bienvenidos al Renacimiento, una época en la que la peste negra ha cedido el paso a los puritanos, los verdugados y las braguetas marcan la última tendencia en moda, y la mayor celebridad de Inglaterra es un dramaturgo llamado William Shakespeare.

En medio de todo este ajetreo, los hermanos Nick y Nigel Bottom intentan mantener a flote su compañía teatral. En un intento desesperado por superar al mismísimo Shakespeare, Nick consulta a un adivino, quien le revela que el futuro del teatro pasa por actuar, cantar y bailar... ¡a veces, todo al mismo tiempo!

Mientras los hermanos Bottom se esfuerzan por crear el primer «musical» de la historia, se ven envueltos en una encarnizada rivalidad con Shakespeare, donde la obra lo es todo.

¡Something Rotten! es una celebración hilarante y rebosante de alegría de todo lo que te apasiona de Broadway.

About the Production Staff

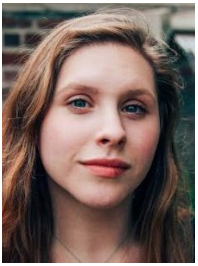

ANDY RAY | director

With a background in Theatre Education from the University of Northern Colorado, Andy has collaborated with young artists in the region for the past ten years to create, perform, and share their work with friends, family, and community. He would like to thank Sara S., Wendy, Sara G., Andrew, Margarita, and Mars for their commitment and dedication to keeping tradition and art alive, and the entire Overland community for their continued passion for learning. Lastly, Andy would like to thank his friends and Angela for the support that they never cease giving him.

SARA GARZA | music director

Sara is incredibly grateful and excited to bring another production to life for the Overland Community in her third year at OHS. She currently teaches Choir and Piano during the school day and assists in several different areas for Theatre productions. Sara is a graduate of both the University of Denver and Metropolitan State University of Denver. In addition to teaching at Overland, Sara enjoys singing professionally and serving on the board of the Colorado chapter of the American Choral Directors Association. She has music directed, directed, and conducted the pit orchestra for several shows throughout her career, so as you can probably tell, this is one of Sara's favorite parts of her job! She would like to thank her wonderful partner Matt for his support (and cooking on all the late nights), the Performing Arts team for their hard work and shenanigans, and all of her students for being the absolute best.

SARA SACHS | technical director

Sara Sachs is a University of Denver graduate, where she double majored in Theatre and Italian (with a minor in History and a distinction in Stage Management). She is a freelance stage manager, designer, and live events technician in the Denver Metro Area and beyond. She has worked with Evan Bernardin Productions, Creative Endeavor Office, Denver Center Theater Company, Opera Colorado, Phamaly, Little Theater of the Rockies, Athena Project, Sis Tryst Productions, Parker Arts, and more. While she remains the Technical Theatre Sponsor, she is now the full-time Production Manager for DU's Lamont School of Music & Theatre. She would like to thank her performing arts coworkers for letting her spam the group chat, and her students for making Overland a spectacular place to be. She would like to thank her Rotten! colleagues and students. Enjoy the show!

TAYLOR HUTCHINS | orchestra conductor

Taylor is currently in his 6th year at Overland HS and 15th year of teaching overall. He graduated from Colorado State University with a Bachelor's in Music Education, and later returned to complete a Masters in Conducting. At Overland, Mr. Hutchins directs three orchestras and teaches piano and music theory. Conducting the pit orchestra is one of Hutch's favorite responsibilities at OHS. Something Rotten! is Hutch's sixth musical with Overland. His favorite part about pit orchestra is the snacks, and the key signatures. Specifically cherry sours and Gb Major. Everyone loves Gb major. However, making music with these incredibly talented and dedicated musicians is pretty cool, too.
