ZONE CONTEST MANAGER

FRANK CHUTER

Frank taught Texas high school theatre for over 20 years, serving Aldine, Humble, and Klein ISDs. He currently serves as Fine Arts Director for Klein ISD. He has participated in all facets of UIL OAP contests as a student, director, contest manager, and adjudicator. As a director, Frank and his students have competed at all levels of UIL, including multiple trips to the Region contest and 1st runner-up at the 4A State Meet in 2005. Frank has cherished the many valuable lessons he has learned while being involved with OAP. He believes in the educational opportunities provided through the UIL OAP and continues to enjoy the opportunity to participate. Frank received his BA in theatre from the University of Houston (1996) and his Masters degree in Educational Leadership from Lamar University in 2016.

ZONE CONTEST JUDGE

GEM WHITE

Gem White is a retired theatre teacher and director. Her many years of directing and advancing in UIL One Act Play Contests give her insight into the hard work and commitment that is required to compete. She has the upmost respect for everyone that is involved in the process. Therefore she is committed to providing constructive and encouraging feedback. Mrs. White believes theatre not only has the ability to inform and entertain, but can also change lives. Gem has a B.F.A. in Theatre and Art and a M.A. in Theatre. In her retirement Gem has become a professional artist and owns Art Studio 670. She chose to become a clinician and adjudicator, because she missed working with what she thinks are some of the most amazing people on the planet - theatre students.
