Do you have concerns about your child's development?

Learning Speech Behavior

Special education and related services are available to all eligible individuals from age 3 through 21. Early Intervention (EI) provides services to children from birth to their 3rd birthday for learning, speech, behavior, or other developmental delays.

Evaluation Process:

K-12 Parents can request an evaluation by contacting the school that your child attends. Preschool Parents (age: 3-5) may request an evaluation by writing a letter to:

Early Intervention Office at Pittsburgh Conroy Education Center,
1398 Page Street, Pittsburgh PA 15233
412-529-4000

You may also call 412-529-HELP (4357) and request support or someone to contact you.

Consent:

School entities cannot proceed with an evaluation, or with the initial provision of special education and related services, without the written consent of the parents. For additional information, please refer to the Procedural Safeguards Notice which can be found at the PaTTAN website, www.Pattan.net or by contacting PSE at:

Program for Students with Exceptionalities,
2323 Brighton Road, Pittsburgh PA 15212
412-529-3132

Confidentiality of Information:

The School District of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh-Mt. Oliver Intermediate Unit, and charter schools maintain records concerning all children enrolled in the school, including students with disabilities. All records are maintained in the strictest confidentiality. Your consent, or consent of an eligible child who has reached the age of majority under State law, must be obtained before personally identifiable information is released, except as permitted under the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). The age of majority in Pennsylvania is 21.
