A Q&A with Candace Gonnella Waidl...

What did you do after graduating from VCS?

After I graduated from Victor Central Schools I attended Mercyhurst University from 2012-2016, graduating with a Bachelor of Science in Interior Architecture. My main inspiration for pursuing Interior Design originated on Victor Schools Campus. At the end of junior year, discussions about the Victor pool house addition started. I was able to see renderings and plans for the new addition, and it introduced the concept of designing for schools. After Mercyhurst I had the unique opportunity to start working for the design firm responsible for that very pool house, SWBR.

At SWBR I specialize in interior design for education, specifically K-12. Designing for schools has been a very rewarding career because I help shape the spaces that support students, educators, and community members for generations to come. I am very thankful that my passion for design and shaping educational spaces has led to designing at Victor Central Schools.

What classes/activities and/or teachers at VCS most inspired you?

David Denner was a huge inspiration for me. I was focused mainly on music classes for my extracurriculars until discovering Interior Design early in my Senior year. I worked with Mr. Denner to create an independent study allowing me to make a college application portfolio. He never once made me feel like my dreams were out of reach even with the quick timeline and seemingly impossible list of details I needed to square away to apply for college. I will be forever grateful for his encouragement and dedication to me as a student. His influence truly shaped my journey.

How did your VCS education prepare you for work and life in general?

I was highly involved in the music program at VCS. My involvement in field band and orchestra allowed me to build collaborative relationships with my peers that was very important when entering the workforce. Nothing is done on an island in a design firm. Everyone has a part the play and no part is too small. This lesson applies to life in general; Everyone has a story, and every story has a purpose.

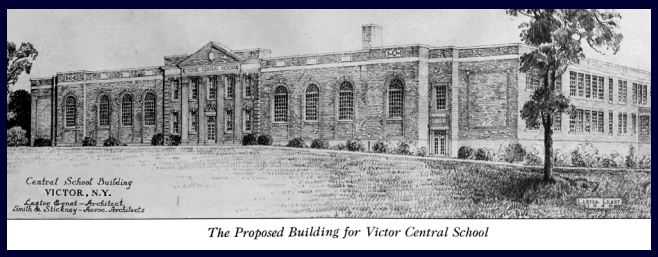

What advice would you give to VCS graduates today?

No dream is ever too big. Don't be afraid to ask questions and always show up as your true self. Keep pursuing what excites and inspires you. It is important to celebrate every win and trust that even your setbacks are shaping you for what's ahead.

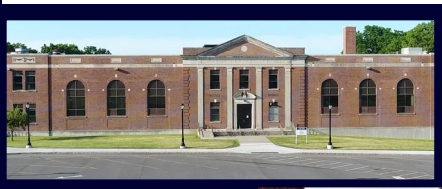

Capital Project Update: Building on Victor's Legacy

The Class of 2026 – A night to remember!

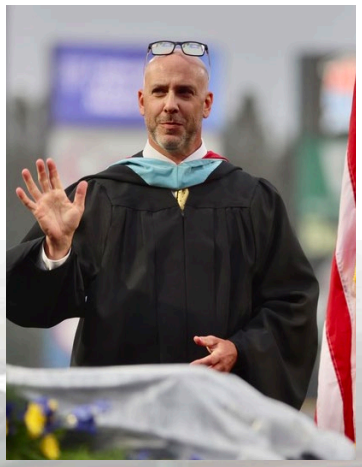

Resilience is a quality that VCS students are known for. Whether they are taking challenging courses, competing in top tier athletic games, or performing the most difficult music selections, our students always persevere and prevail!

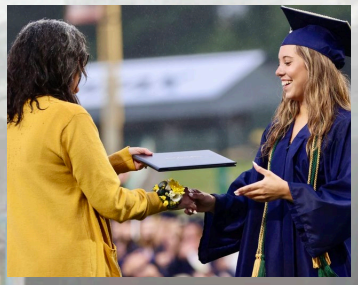

Not even a little rain could dampen the spirits of the Class of 2026 as they crossed the “stage” to accept their diplomas at ESL Ballpark on Monday, June 22. Despite a weather forecast that showed clearing skies, Mother Nature decided otherwise and challenged 311 graduates and their families and friends with a mist for the memories all night long.

Congratulations to the Class of 2026 for showing us once more what we have always known, and the rest of world will soon discover. You are resilient. You are ready for anything!

A Tribute to Dr. William A. Guiffre'

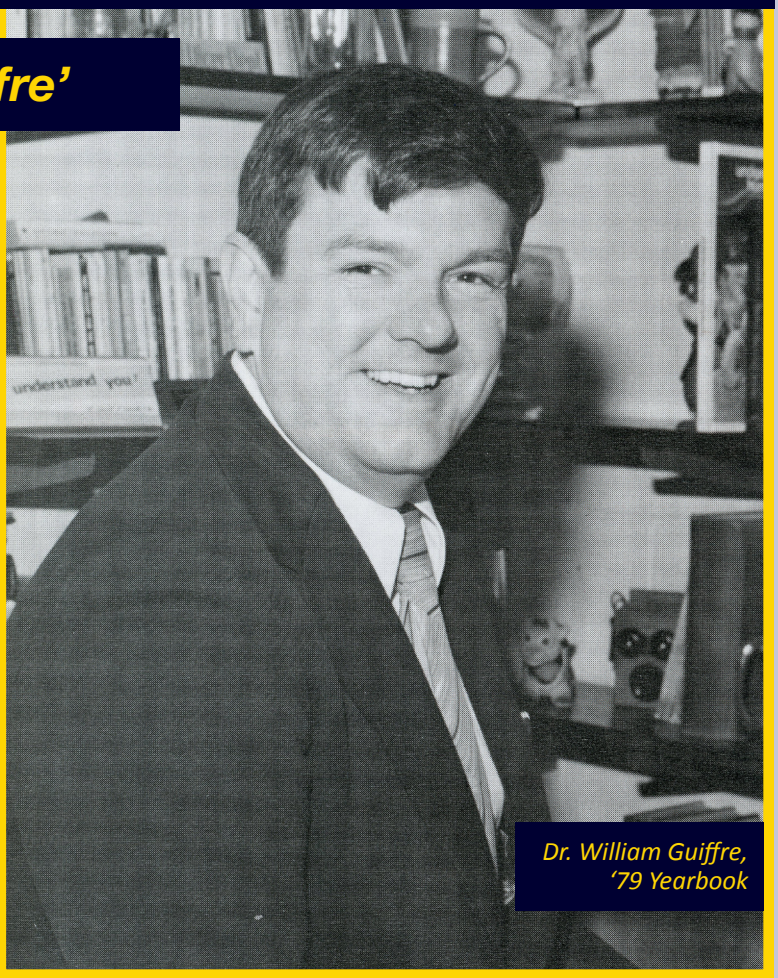

(submitted by his daughter, Deb)

Dr. William A Guiffre' at VHS, AKA: Mr. G, Mr. Guiffre', Bill, and some Dad

My Father was born November 15, 1934, and passed on January 26, 2026. He lived a life defined by devotion, purpose, and an unwavering faith that carried him and everyone around him through every season. He passed away surrounded by the love of the family he cherished, leaving behind a legacy as deep and enduring as the roots he planted over his 91 years.

For 69 years, William shared a remarkable marriage with his beloved wife, Ann. Together they built a family grounded in love, resilience, and faith. Their seven children were the pride of his life: Patty (John), Beth (Stan), Deb (Steve), Billy (Ellen), Amy (Paul), Mary (Bob), Jennifer (Matt), and daughter in law, Ann Marie. His joy multiplied with each new generation, culminating in 23 grandchildren and 27 great grandchildren. William is survived by siblings Joe, Tony, David, and Marie, as well as his brother and sister-in-law, Denny and Peggy VerDow, numerous nieces, and nephews. He leaves a vast family who adored him and will carry his memory forward with warmth and gratitude.

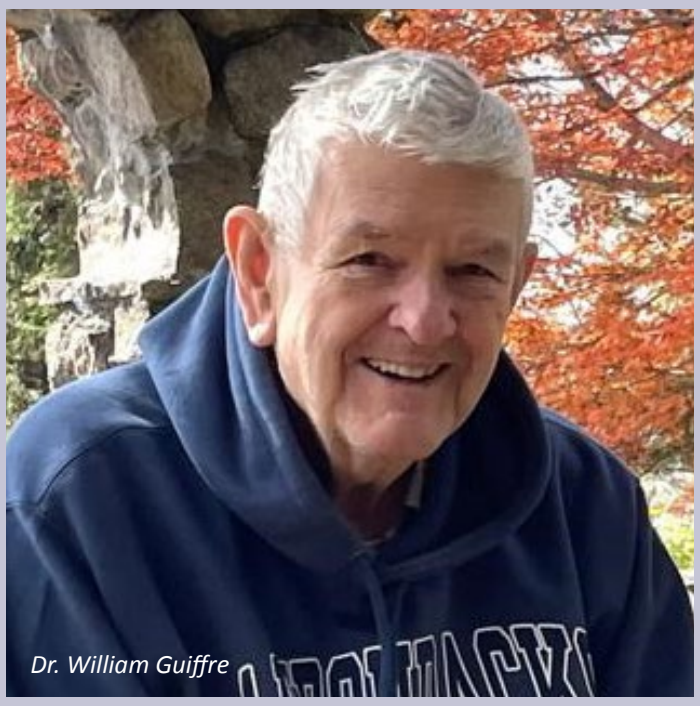

A man of service and conviction, William proudly served as Lieutenant in the United States Navy for three years. His time in the Navy shaped his sense of duty, leadership, and honor qualities that remained central to who he was throughout his life. It was education that was both his calling and his gift. William earned his doctorate in education from the University of Rochester, a milestone that reflected his deep commitment to learning and to helping others grow. Over the course of his career, he served as a teacher, guidance counselor, vice principal, and principal at Victor Central High School until his retirement in 1990. He shaped countless young lives with patience, compassion, and a belief in every child's potential. His influence extended far beyond the classroom: he was a steady presence, a trusted mentor, and a man whose quiet wisdom left a lasting imprint. In retirement, William embraced a new creative chapter, writing children's books that reflected his gentle spirit and love of storytelling. His words will continue to inspire young readers, just as he inspired generations of students.

Dr. William Guiffre, '79 Yearbook

Above all, William was a devoted Catholic with "the faith of a mountain." It guided his decisions, comforted him in hardship, and illuminated his path. His life was a testament to service, humanity, and grace.

William's legacy lives on in the family he raised, the students he guided, the stories he wrote, and the countless lives he touched simply by being who he was. May Dr. William Guiffre''s memory be a blessing and may the wonderful life he lived continue to shine through all who loved him.

Dr. William Guiffre

A Celebration to Remember

On Saturday March 28th, more than 200 friends and family stopped by The Butler Cottage in Victor to celebrate and remember Dr. Guiffre. The coffee and cookies celebration not only marked a meaningful day of remembrance, but it also paved the way for a new memorial scholarship in honor of Dr. Guiffre. The first Dollars for Scholars Memorial Scholarship in memory of Dr. Guiffre was awarded this spring to Yamalihelys Viera Rabell.

Dollars for Scholars Holds 38th Annual Awards Night

The Victor Scholarship Program Dollars for Scholars (VSP-DFS) held its 38th annual awards ceremony this May in the Junior-Senior High Arts Center, or at least half of it! An issue in a science classroom triggered a fire alarm mid-ceremony causing half of the awards to be postponed. But not even an electrical glitch stopped DFS from awarding 112 students from the Class of 2026 more than $168,000! Remaining awards were given virtually to students and the five families who were unable to present their "In Memoriam" scholarships did so at the Senior High Awards night the following week.

The VSP-DFS is a chapter of the national organization Scholarship America. The ceremony celebrated and recognized the accomplishments of many gifted and talented students from the VCS Class of 2026.

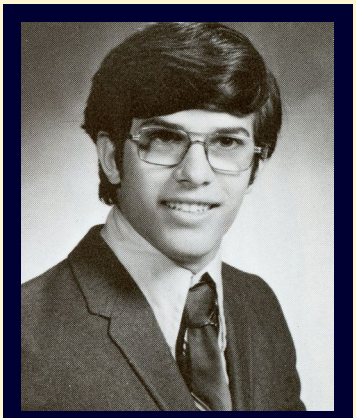

Seniors are requested to complete an online scholarship application which covers all scholarships. While the criteria for some scholarships emphasize scholastic aptitude, many do not. The criteria may be as specific as the college the graduate plans to attend or the student's anticipated field of study such as education, health related and vocational. Some scholarships are specific to sports participation, school activities, and community service.

All awards are chosen by a committee comprised of guidance counselors, administrators and teachers representing all departments. The selection process takes a considerable amount of time, and the committee is extremely diligent in reviewing candidates and making sure the scholarship criteria are met.

Members of the VCS Class of 2027 will be able to complete the online scholarship application between October 30th, 2026, and January 29th, 2027. Students will be given additional information and instructions from Co-Presidents, Mrs. Laurie Fiorito and Mrs. Allison Baker.

Since its initial awards night in 1989 the VSP-DFS has awarded $2.7 million to over 3,400 VCS graduates. Anyone interested in learning more about the VSP-DFS program may contact Laurie Fiorito at fioritol@victorschools.org or bakera@victorschools.org

Celebrating 60 Years of Suzuki Strings in Victor

On Saturday, June 13, alumni of the Victor Central School District's Suzuki strings program gathered to celebrate its 60th anniversary. The reunion brought together former students spanning generations, with alumni from 1989 through 2025 returning to celebrate the program's lasting impact and reconnect through their shared musical experiences.

The summer reunion was the culmination of a year of celebrations honoring six decades of Suzuki music education in Victor. As part of the anniversary, the district's music department commissioned a new musical piece entitled "The Journey," by Michael Thomas McLean. This work was unveiled by VCS musicians of all ages at the 2026 District Orchestras Concert to the delight of a standing-room only crowd. In addition to the District Orchestras concert during Music in Our Schools Month in March, elementary students marked the milestone with a special Suzuki concert featuring performances of the program's most beloved favorites.

Victor Central Schools was one of the first public school districts in the nation to incorporate the Suzuki violin method into its curriculum. The program began in 1966 after veteran strings teacher Betty Kocher attended the National Suzuki Conference at the Eastman School of Music that summer. Inspired after seeing Shinichi Suzuki demonstrate his teaching method, Kocher successfully convinced the Victor Central Schools Board of Education to establish a Suzuki program for 80 first, second, and third grade students.

The program received an extraordinary visit the following year when Dr. Suzuki traveled to Victor Primary School four times in 1967 to work with Mrs. Kocher and her students. His visits helped establish a special connection between Victor and the internationally recognized approach to music education.

Over the past six decades, the Suzuki program has continued to grow, at times serving as many as 180 beginning second and third-grade students. Its longevity reflects the district's longstanding commitment to music education and the dedication of the teachers who have helped generations of students discover the joy of playing a string instrument.

Victor Marching Blue Devils Celebrate 45th Season with "Bottom of the Ninth"

There's nothing quite like baseball. The traditions, the energy, and the memories made under the lights all come together in a game that brings people together. This fall, the Victor Marching Blue Devils is bringing that same spirit to the field with their 2026 production, Bottom of the Ninth, as they celebrate their 45th season.

Inspired by America's pastime, Bottom of the Ninth captures the excitement and drama of baseball's final inning through music, movement, and precision. The production showcases the dedication, creativity, and teamwork that have been hallmarks of the Victor Marching Blue Devils for more than four decades.

That spirit was on full display Saturday, October 10, during the annual Victor Marching Blue Devils Home Show. Fourteen marching bands took the field for an unforgettable evening of music, precision, and passion. Beautiful weather and an enthusiastic crowd created the perfect setting as performers shared their talents and celebrated the marching arts.

From the volunteers working behind the scenes to the fans cheering from the stands, each person plays a part in making the event special.

As the Victor Marching Blue Devils mark their 45th season, Bottom of the Ninth serves as another exciting chapter in the program's history. The district extends its sincere thanks to the community, volunteers, families, and fans whose continued support makes opportunities like this possible.

Here's to 45 seasons of music, memories, and Blue Devil pride, and to the many more still to come!

Reunions

VCS class of 1976 holds 50th class reunion | Submitted by Donna Rugg '76

On August 21st and 22nd the VCS class of 76 held its 50th class reunion. On Friday, we had an informal drop in at the Victor Village Inn. Classmates came to reconnect, have some pizza, wings and a few drinks. We had approximately 50 attendees. Some came because they couldn't attend the Saturday dinner and others came because it gave them an extra day to connect with more classmates.

As you might expect, the Victor High School has changed quite a bit since 1976 so with class President Dave Condon as our guide, about 25 people met at the high school for a tour. Back in 1976 the current junior/ senior high school building included only grades 9-12. Everyone on the tour was able to see the renovated/ updated auditorium, new high school gymnasium, multi-use athletic rooms/dance studios, cafeteria, media center and many new classrooms. The tour wrapped up in the new aquatic center.

On Saturday evening, August 22nd, a reunion dinner was held at the Finger Lakes Racino in Farmington where everyone enjoyed the buffet and a wonderful powerpoint presentation put together by Pat Henehan Coleman that included many picture memories as we all talked and caught up. There was a total of 90 in attendance- approximately 60 members of the class of 76 and about 30 guests. This was probably our best attended reunion since graduation in 1976. The members of the class of 76 are spread all over the country and for this reunion came from – Hawaii, Washington, California, Florida, Virginia, Illinois, Connecticut, Montana, New Hampshire, Georgia, Pennsylvania, and Arizona, as well as NY including many who are still in the Victor area.

It was a great couple of days, sharing memories, reconnecting with old friends and making new ones. Hopefully we will gather again in about 5 years.

Class of ‘71 Holds 55th Reunion

On Sunday, September 27, around 35 members of the Class of 1971 gathered at Mertensia Park to celebrate their 55th reunion! Alumna Linda Armstrong said classmates shared great food, played a dueling color game with prizes, and played a trivia game featuring questions from the three decades they attended school. Best of all, everyone had a wonderful time catching up on each other’s lives.

60th Reunion
When We Graduated

Submitted by Susan Whitney Masseth ‘66

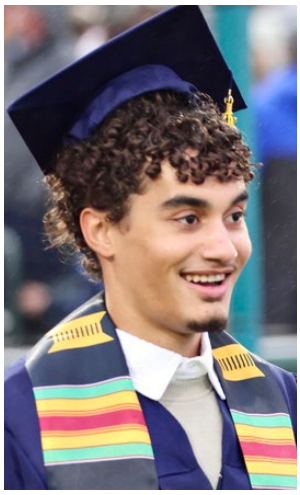

When we graduated in 1966, we were a class of only 108 students, so everybody knew everybody and many of those friendships have continued through 60 years.

In fact we had classmates here from Florida, Georgia, Colorado, Oklahoma, North Carolina and New Jersey…proof that our friendships have endured.

When we were seniors in High School, the expectation was that the graduating class would attend the Alumni Banquet. We obeyed that directive, and as we sat there, we were astonished that so many old people attended that annual banquet. Now we understand why: old friends are great friends, and our “Do You Remember “stories still make us laugh.

33 of our classmates have passed away. We met informally at the Village Inn to get reacquainted with old friends on Saturday night and over 50 percent of the remaining classmates attended. We also attended the Alumni Banquet remembering those that were not with us and celebrated that we still have each other. Even though it’s been 60 years since we graduated, we still have fond memories that we treasure. Here’s hoping that Mr. Palumbo knows that we still value our time at VCS.
