8th-Grade Social Studies

A Lesson in Civics & Local Government

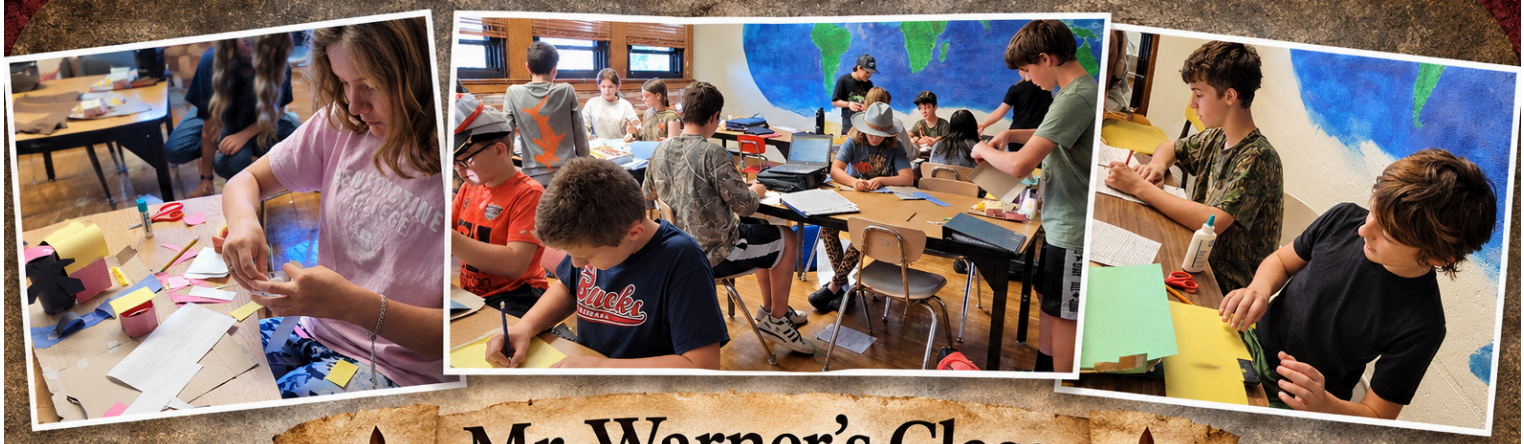

Students in Mr. Anderson's 8th-grade Social Studies class recently got a firsthand lesson in civics and local government. Deputy Noyes, our School Resource Officer, partnered with the class to share the history of the county sheriff, how sheriffs are elected, and the different roles of law enforcement agencies. Students also participated in a Q&A and asked questions about law enforcement and the sheriff's office. Thank you, Deputy Noyes, for giving our students a real-world look at local government and public service!
