Superintendent Comments:

- Superintendent McMahon shared that Rachel Staley and Taylor Howard (Paddock and Symons Social Workers) were awarded the WISD Mental Health mini-grant to support the be.nice program, in the amount of $2,500 for each school. The grant is co-sponsored by the Washtenaw County Mental Health Public Safety Preservation Millage and the WISD. Combined with the be.nice mini-grants received by Elise Hill at MHS and Sophia Kleyla at MMS, the program received a total of $14,000 for the district from these grants.

- Superintendent McMahon thanked the staff for their extra work that went into conducting Parent-Teacher Conferences and also thanked parents for their participation. The conferences make for a long-week, but the opportunity to meet with our stakeholders is well worth the time.
