Lynch Hill School Primary Academy Newsletter

Issue: 6 (26-27) Aim High, Work Hard, Care Deeply 6th November 2026

A message from Mrs Tomlinson…

It was wonderful to welcome the children back to school after the half-term break. The school quickly came back to life, and it has been lovely to see pupils returning with enthusiasm, settling straight back into routines and making the most of the learning opportunities on offer.

The seven weeks leading up to the Christmas holiday are always busy and exciting, with many events, activities and celebrations taking place across the school. Please keep an eye on the key dates included in this newsletter and on our website to ensure you do not miss any important information.

A huge thank you to all parents and carers who took the time to complete our Autumn 1 questionnaire. We greatly appreciate your feedback. Whilst it was pleasing to see so many positive comments, we also value hearing about areas where we can improve. Working in partnership with our families is incredibly important to us, and where feedback has highlighted a concern or suggestion, you may receive a call from your child's teacher or year leader. These conversations help us to understand issues more fully and work together to find positive solutions.

We are delighted that the sibling photographs that were requested have been taken today. We hope you enjoy viewing them. Please note that orders must be placed by the end of November for free shipping.

Today, we were pleased to welcome several of our governors into school for their termly monitoring visit. As many of you will know, last year we launched our Lynch Hill Learning Characteristics, which promote the qualities and dispositions we want our children to develop as effective learners, ready for the next stage of their education and for life beyond school. These characteristics are closely linked to our work on oracy, helping children to become confident communicators and reflective learners. During their visit, governors joined our Young Ambassadors for learning walks around the school, speaking with pupils about their learning and observing how these key characteristics are being developed in classrooms. We are incredibly grateful for the time and commitment our governors give to supporting Lynch Hill and contributing to our ongoing improvement journey.

As we approach Remembrance Day on 11th November, we will continue selling poppies and Royal British Legion merchandise in school. Thank you to everyone who has already shown their support for this important cause. Shortly afterwards, we will begin fundraising for Children in Need, with merchandise ready to go on sale. We are always proud of the generosity shown by our school community and thank you for helping us support these worthwhile charities.

Bookings for our forthcoming Progress Review Meetings opened earlier this week and will close on Friday 13th November. The meetings will take place on Tuesday 24th November and Wednesday 25th November, between 3:40pm and 6:30pm. These appointments provide a valuable opportunity to celebrate your child's achievements so far this year, discuss their progress and explore ways we can continue to work together to support their learning. If you have not already done so, please remember to book an appointment.

Finally, I would like to wish all of our families a wonderful weekend. For those celebrating Diwali, I hope you enjoy this special occasion with family and friends, and I wish you a joyful and happy celebration. I look forward to seeing everyone back in school next week.

Well-being: Volunteering and Developing Leadership

At Lynch Hill School, we have 6 Personal Development Strands which underpin children's learning and development and enhance well-being. We would love to co-work with families so these strands are shared in homes too. Our sixth strand is Volunteering and developing leadership.

We aim to ensure that all of our children are given the opportunity to volunteer and recognise the importance of contributing positively to the school community and to the wider community.

Our nurturing approach at Lynch Hill enables meaningful connections with adults and peers. Whilst not every child aspires to lead, developing an awareness of leadership is important so that they have a good understanding of effective working environments, teamwork and relationships.

Some key points for consideration of volunteering and developing leadership in your home:

- Make sure everyone in the family has responsibilities. These might be simple, such as washing up their water bottle and packing their school bag every night.
- Look for local volunteering opportunities as a family, the library is a good starting point.
- If your child has an idea for volunteering within school, please talk to your class teacher!
- Promote meaningful connections through playdates and building friendships outside of school.

Anti-Bullying Week 2026 will take place from Monday 16th to Friday 20th November with the theme: Break the Silence.

This year's campaign will encourage children, young people and adults across the UK to start conversations about bullying, speak up, listen and take action together. The week will kick off with Odd Socks Day on Monday 16th, with adults and children being encouraged to wear odd socks to celebrate what makes us all unique.

PRESENT Value of the Week: TEAMWORK

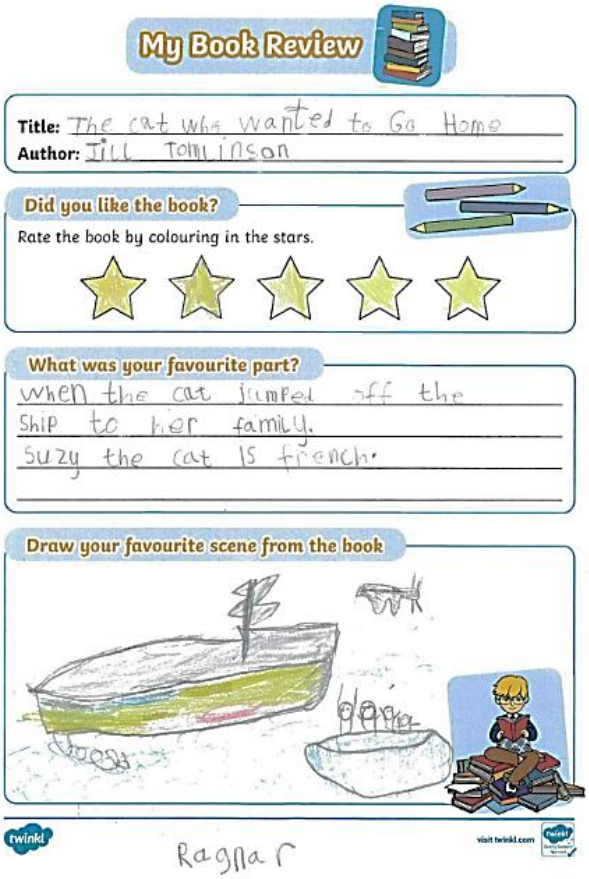

The Cozy Reading Corner – Bumper Edition!

At our school, we want to encourage reading across the whole of the school community – and that includes our parents and carers! This term we will continue with our book reviews from/for our children. This week we have threee reviews from Ragnar in Year 1 – he loves to read and wants to share his passion.

70th Anniversary Party

On the Friday before half term we celebrated Lynch Hill's 70th Anniversary by having parties in year groups. Although the weather wasn't perfect, we still had a great time celebrating in classrooms by having lots of cake and yummy food. Thank you all again for helping us to fundraise for our party!

Book Fair Competition – the winning reviews!

Firstly, a huge thank you for everyone that supported the book fair - whether you came and purchased a book or entered the competition to win a voucher. I was overwhelmed with the effort, talent and thought that was put into the entries, and it was incredibly hard to narrow it down to just 5 winners! All of the entries are in a folder in the entry to the school, so please do have a look. I am pleased to say that this was our most successful book fair yet! We have just over £1800 to spend on books for the school, so thank you so much for your support. I would also like to thank you for your patience with the technology issues and space within the school - your feedback has been taken on board and we will be changing how it is run in the future. I have passed on the messages to scholastic, and they will ensure to provide us with more devices next time.

Pride in Place – Have Your Say

Pride in Place is a national government regeneration programme looking to invest up to £20 million over the next 10 years into Britwell. The aim is the make the community thrive again, create community cohesion and let residents take back control.

A neighbourhood board made up of residents and local stakeholders will decide how the money is spent, but first, they must consult with the community

Please click on the link below to put forward your views and ideas in how the money should be allocated:

We are a Nut, Seed and Pineapple Free School

Please make sure that you do not give your children nutty bars, seeded bread, Nutella, Kinder Bueno or any other item containing nuts in their lunch box. We have a number of children and staff with life threatening allergies to nuts, seeds and pineapple, and even touching the hand of a child who has come in to contact with nuts, seeds or pineapple could be fatal.
No nuts, no pineapple + no seeds = no problem.

Please note that all Friday meal debts will not be on SchoolMoney until Monday afternoon.
