This week is bus and teen driving safety week. It is important to stay safe on the roads, and keep away from distractions. When a bus is stopped, make sure you do not go around them. You need to stay patient and wait for the clear to start driving again. Driving as a teenager is a freedom, but also a risk. Make sure you are wearing your seatbelts and paying attention. 51% of teen drivers who died is 2024 were not wearing seatbelts. When you are not being a safe and respectful driver, you are not only putting your own life at risk, but you are also putting others into a dangerous position. Stay Safe on the roads!
