Dear Veteran,

I want to take a moment to sincerely thank you for your service, your sacrifices, and your dedication to protecting our country. I admire your willingness to serve in something great than yourself. I hope you know how much your commitment means to the people whose lives you help protect. Having family members and best friends in the military, I have a personal appreciation for the courage, strength, and dedication it takes to serve our country. I have also come to understand even more how meaningful military service is through someone very close to me currently serving. It has given me a greater appreciation for not only the individuals who serve but also the sacrifices they and their loved ones make along the way. I know serving in the military can require so much more than most people understand, and I have immense respect for the challenges you have faced. Your service is something that deserves to be recognized and appreciated, not just on special occasions, but every day. Thank you for your bravery, your commitment, and everything you have done for our country and its people. I am incredibly grateful for people like you who are willing to serve and project the freedoms we are so blessed to have. Please know that your service has made a difference and will never go unnoticed or under appreciated.

With sincere gratitude,
Emily Hyde

Dear Veteran,

To all our veterans

Thank you from the bottom of my heart. I know that serving our country comes with sacrifices that many of us will never fully understand. It means time away from family, missing important moments, and carrying experiences that may stay with you for a lifetime. I hope you know how deeply your service is appreciated, not just today, but every day. Because of you, we get to enjoy freedoms and opportunities that are easy to take for granted. No words can ever truly repay what you have given, but I hope you always feel the gratitude, love, and respect you deserve. Thank you for your courage, your sacrifices, and the part of your life you gave for all of us. You will never be forgotten.

Dear Veteran,

I want to extend a sincere thank you, from our family to you, for the selfless act of patriotism and service to our country. There is no greater love than a man lay down his life for another, and you were willing to do that. It is truly humbling to live in a country that is preserved by such patriots.

To All U.S. Veterans:

To those who have served on active duty, and to those who stand ready, training and preparing to serve whenever and wherever they are needed, we offer our deepest gratitude. To those who have sacrificed time with family and friends, and to those who have served on foreign soil to protect the freedoms we hold dear, thank you. Your courage, dedication, and commitment help ensure that the hardships of war remain far from the shores of the nation you love and have sworn to defend. I am proud and privileged to say, "Thank you for your service." This message is especially meaningful to me. My grandfather, father, uncles, aunt, and brother all served in the Navy, Army, and Marine Corps. Today, my son continues that legacy through his work with the Army as Chief of the Armor Operations Branch at Aberdeen Test Center. To all who have worn the uniform, and to the families who have supported them along the way, please know that your sacrifices are remembered, your service is honored, and your dedication is deeply appreciated. "All gave some. Some gave all. We remember and thank them all."

Dear Veteran,

Thank you for your service and for the sacrifices you have made for our country.

Military service holds a special place in my heart, as many members of my family have served, including my father, who served in the Navy during the Korean War. I have a deep appreciation for the courage, commitment, and sacrifices of those who have served to protect the freedoms we enjoy, freedoms that we sometimes take for granted.

With so much conflict and uncertainty in the world today, I am especially reminded of how fortunate we are to have men and women willing to put their own lives at risk in service to others.

Please know that your service and sacrifice are not forgotten. I am truly grateful to you and to all veterans who have given so much for our country and our freedom.

Thank you, from the bottom of my heart, for your service.
