Jay Drapeau

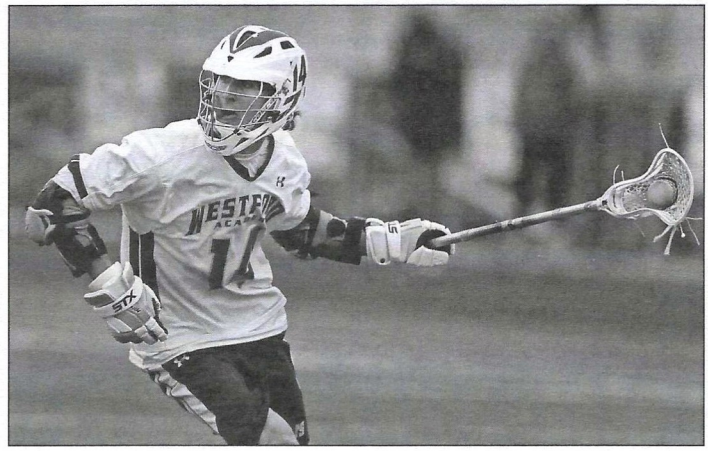

Class of 2014 - Ice Hockey & Lacrosse

Jay Drapeau was a decorated two-sport athlete at Westford Academy, earning induction into the Athletic Hall of Fame on the strength of an extraordinary career in both lacrosse and ice hockey.

In lacrosse, Jay stands alone at the top of the record books. He graduated in 2014 as the all-time leading scorer in Westford Academy lacrosse history, amassing 445 career points, a total that ranked fifth in all of Massachusetts high school lacrosse history at the time of his graduation. Over four varsity seasons, he tallied 302 goals and 143 assists, setting the single-season school record as a senior with 142 points on 86 goals and 56 assists. Prior, he had a dominant junior season, amassing 106 points, a sophomore year of 122 points, and a freshman season of 75 points

He was a three-time Eastern Massachusetts All-American (2012, 2013, 2014) and earned Dual County League All-Star recognition all three years. He was a three-time Boston Herald All-Scholastic Team honoree, a two-time Boston Globe All-Scholastic honoree, and earned ESPN Boston All-State First Team honors in both 2013 and 2014. He was named the Lowell Sun Player of the Year in those same seasons, while also being selected to the Under Armour Underclass All-American New England Team in 2013. He served as team captain in his senior year, a reflection of the character and leadership he brought to every practice and game.

On the ice, Jay was equally impactful. He is one of only six players since 1990 to score over 100 career points for the Ghosts, finishing with 112, while earning DCL All-Star honors three times. He served as team captain in both his junior and senior seasons, while earning two-time Lowell Sun All-Star accolades.

After Westford Academy, Jay took his talents to Loyola University, where he was named to the Patriot League All-Stars and earned Second Team USILA All-American recognition. In 2018, he set the Loyola school record for goals by a midfielder, a remarkable achievement at a national lacrosse powerhouse.

Jay Drapeau exemplified what it means to be a Ghost. He was talented, tireless, and a true team player. His remarkable legacy at Westford Academy is one that will stand for generations.
