POLICY 201 — SCHOOL BOARD

Legal Status of the School Board

I. Purpose

The care, management, and control of the schools are vested by statutory and constitutional authority in the school board. The board carries out the mission of the school district with diligence, prudence, and dedication to the ideals of providing the finest public education. This policy defines the authority, duties, and powers of the board in carrying out its mission.

II. General Statement of Policy

A. The school board is the governing body of the school district. As such, the board has responsibility for the care, management, and control over public schools in the ~~school~~ district.

B. Generally, elected members of the board have binding authority only when acting as a board legally in session, except where specific authority is provided to board members or officers individually. Generally, the board is not bound by an action or statement on the part of an individual board member unless the action is specifically directed or authorized by the board.

III. Definition

For purposes of this policy, “school board” means the governing body of the school district.

III. Organization and Membership

A. The membership of the school board consists of seven elected directors. The term of office is four years.

B. There may be other ex officio members of the board as provided by law. The superintendent is an ex officio member.

C. A majority of voting members constitutes a quorum. The act of the majority of a quorum is the act of the board.

D. Election of board members is held in accordance with Minnesota law. The general election is held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday of November in even-numbered years.

E. A vacancy in the board due to a member's death, resignation, or termination of residency in the district is filled by action of the board as provided by state statute.

III. Powers and Duties

A. The school board has powers and duties specified by state law. The board's authority includes implied powers in addition to specific powers granted by the Legislature.

B. The board exercises administrative functions. It also has certain powers of a legislative character and other powers of a quasi-judicial character.

C. The board directs and manages the schools of the school district; adopts rules for schools' organization, government, and instruction, textbooks, and courses of study; and makes and authorizes contracts.

D. The board has the general charge of the business of the ~~school~~ district, its facilities and property, and of the interest of the schools.

E. The board, among other duties, performs the following in accordance with applicable law:

1. Provides by levy of tax, necessary funds for the conduct of schools, the payment of indebtedness, and all proper expenses of the district.

2. Conducts the business of the schools and pays indebtedness and proper expenses.
