TCHS MISSION, MOTTO, AND VALUES

As part of our Lumen process, we are excited to share our revised mission statement, motto, and core values. Thank you for all of your input throughout this process!

OUR MISSION

Grounded in Catholic tradition, academic excellence, and joyful community, Teurlings Catholic High School educates the whole person, preparing students to live out their vocations with purpose and integrity.

OUR MOTTO

To Channel His Spirit means allowing the Holy Spirit to shape every thought, word, and action so that others encounter Jesus Christ through us.

OUR VALUES

The values of Communion, Virtue, Truth, and Mercy shape every aspect of our school culture and inspire us to live out the Gospel each day.

COMMUNION
Living as one Body in Christ

VIRTUE
Pursuing excellence in character

TRUTH
Thinking with faith and reason

MERCY
Loving others through service

TCHS Christmas Toy Drive

November 9th - 20th

Teurlings Catholic is joining the Romero Family Toy Drive to benefit children in treatment at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and Texas Children's Hospital. Noah Romero, TCHS Class of 2018, was diagnosed with cancer in 2020, and with help from Sky High for Kids he received the treatment he needed and is now in remission. The Romero family hosts this drive as a way to give back to other families walking the same road.

How to give:

- Students may turn in new, unwrapped toys for ages 0-17 to their theology teacher.
- Monetary donations are welcome at Givebutter.com/TCHSToyDrive.
- Please no used toys or toy weapons.

Student incentives:

- For every toy or $10 donated, your student's name will be entered into a prize drawing.
- The grade level that brings in the most toys will win a sweat week.

Families are also invited to the Romero Family Toy Drive on Sunday, November 22, from 1 to 6 PM at 100 Joli Rd. in Carencro, featuring live music and food. Admission is a new, unwrapped toy.

COUNSELORS November CORNER

SEEK the Good

As we enter the season of Thanksgiving, November offers us an opportunity to slow down, reflect, and intentionally seek the good in our everyday lives.

Practicing gratitude is one simple way to shift our perspective. Research suggests that regularly acknowledging what we are thankful for can support emotional well-being, strengthen relationships, and encoujrage a more positive outlook.

Gratitude does not mean ignoring the hard things. We can experience stress, dissapointment, or sadness while still recognizing the good around us. Both can exist at the same time.

November Challenge: SEEK 3 good things!
Each day, take a moment to identify:
1. One thing that make you smile.
2. One person you're grateful for.
3. One think you're looking forward to.

Sometimes, seeking the good doesn't mean looking for something extraordinary. It simply means learning to appreciate what's already around us.

A Gentle Reminder: You can be thankful for what you have while still working toward what you want. Gratitude and growth and coexist.

IF YOU NEED SUPPORT, COME TO THE GUIDANCE BUILDING OR TEXT OR CALL THE 988 SUICIDE & CRISIS LIFELINE (AVAILABLE 24/7)

IF YOU OR SOMEONE YOU KNOW IS STRUGGLING,
ALWAYS TELL A TRUSTED ADULT!

IF YOU'D LIKE TO MEET WITH A COUNSELOR, FILL OUT THE SELF-REFERRAL FORM OR VISIT US IN THE COUNSELING BUILDING.
