Charleston County School District
Office of Communications
75 Calhoun St.,
Charleston, SC 29401
(843) 937-6300

Media Release

Charleston County School District Honors Operations Division Employees of the Year

Charleston, S.C. (November 11, 2026) - Charleston County School District (CCSD) is proud to recognize its 2026 Operations Division Employees of the Year, honoring five outstanding team members whose dedication, hard work, and commitment to service make a difference across the district. From supporting daily school operations to helping ensure safe, efficient learning environments, these employees play an essential role in keeping CCSD moving forward and serving students, staff, and families.

Charleston County School District (CCSD) proudly announces the 2026 Operations Division Employees of the Year, celebrating five exceptional team members who exemplify dedication and service. These individuals represent the best of the district's commitment to operational excellence across essential services that keep schools running safely, efficiently, and with care.

"I am incredibly proud of this year's Operations Division Employees of the Year," said Chief Operating Officer Jeff Borowy. "Their commitment, professionalism, and passion for serving others are reflected in the work they do every day. Each of these individuals brings something special to our team, and their contributions are essential to the success of our schools and the district as a whole. They represent the very best of our Operations team, and I am grateful for all they do to support our students, employees, and school communities."

The 2026 Operations Division Employee of the Year from the Planning, Real Estate and Facility Use Department is Jamall Rawlinson, a Facility Use Officer. This year, Mr. Rawlinson superbly coordinated 4,831 after-hours events in 50 of our schools, a 300-event increase from the previous year, expertly ensuring that events were successful and that the schools were ready for their primary use afterward.

The district also celebrates the outstanding contributions of four additional divisional honorees. Nursing Services- Danielle Lupton, Vision To Learn Nurse Liaison; Security & Emergency Management - James Parker, Field Supervisor of School Crossing Guards; Nutrition Services - Keisha Conyers, Nutrition Services Manager at C.E. Williams Middle School - North Campus; and Capital Programs - Cherie Wash, Assistant Principal on Special Assignment.

"Our Operations Division plays an essential role in creating the environments where students can learn, and educators can thrive," said Superintendent Anita Huggins. "These honorees reflect the dedication, teamwork, and commitment to excellence that make CCSD special. Their contributions may not always be seen in the classroom, but their impact is felt throughout our schools and across our entire district."

Whether preparing nutritious meals, keeping school buildings safe and well-maintained, supporting student health, or ensuring students get to and from school safely, these employees make a difference in countless ways each day. Their work is a powerful reminder that it takes an entire team, united by a shared commitment to students, to keep our schools moving forward.

For more information, please contact the Office of Communications at (843) 937-6303.

###

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is a nationally accredited school district dedicated to ensuring every student has access to a high-quality education and the support needed to thrive. As South Carolina's second-largest school system, CCSD serves more than 50,000 students across 91 schools and specialized programs throughout 1,300 square miles of coastal communities, representing a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools.

Under the leadership of Superintendent Anita Huggins, CCSD is focused on accelerating student achievement, expanding opportunities, and preparing every student for success in college, career, and life. Recent district accomplishments include record-high academic performance on state assessments, increasing graduation rates, and significant gains in college and career readiness, reflecting the district's commitment to continuous improvement and educational excellence. Through the Peninsula Promise, CCSD is also expanding access to early learning, college and career pathways, arts, and family support services to create seamless opportunities for students living on the historic Charleston Peninsula.

CCSD offers a diverse and expanding portfolio of educational choices, including neighborhood, magnet, charter, Montessori, and International Baccalaureate (IB) schools and programs. Students have access to rich learning experiences in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM); visual and performing arts; world languages; military and leadership programs; career and technical education; dual enrollment and early college opportunities; and other innovative pathways designed to meet a wide range of interests and aspirations.

Working in partnership with families, community organizations, higher education institutions, and industry leaders, CCSD remains committed to creating equitable opportunities, fostering student success, and ensuring that every graduate is prepared to contribute and compete in an increasingly complex and interconnected world.