PLTW Principals of Engineering

Teachers and students, do you want to see robots play tug of war? Come to the learning commons during 5th hour and see our new PLTW Principals of engineering class use vex v5 robots to see which robot has the most power! Everyone is welcome.

Medical Club

Hey MEDICAL CLUB, get excited! Our photo for the yearbook is TODAY, right after school. Please meet outside of the NPAC by Student Activities hallway at 3:20! We need to line up tallest to shortest and we have a big crew. You don't want to miss this. Can't wait to see you there! Bring your SMILE.

Humane Huskies

Hey, Humane Huskies! Today is the day. Please meet outside of the NPAC by Student Activities immediately after 8th hour for our yearbook picture and line up tallest to shortest. See you there!
