MYP Individuals & Societies / DP History Teacher

SECONDARY SCHOOL / TEACHING POSITION

INQUIRE · INSPIRE · IMPACT

Dear prospective colleague, Thank you for your interest in joining Nagoya International School. We want classrooms where students do more than answer questions: they question the answers, make connections and discover what matters. Our values of Safety, Growth, Belonging and Responsibility shape how we teach, learn and care for one another. Academic ambition and a sense of belonging go hand in hand; every child deserves to be known, challenged and supported.

We are seeking an experienced History and Individuals & Societies teacher able to teach DP History and the breadth of MYP Individuals & Societies in Middle and High school. Depending on the candidate's expertise and school needs, teaching Theory of Knowledge (TOK) OR Business Management may also be possible. We value colleagues who combine rigorous subject knowledge with thoughtful practice, collaboration and the art of teaching. For the right candidate, this position may also include the opportunity to serve as Head of Department.

Essential requirements

- A BA degree in History or a closely related discipline, valid teaching certification in History, and the subject knowledge to teach IB Diploma Programme History.
- A strong understanding of historical inquiry, critical thinking and source analysis, including how to develop students' research and analytical writing skills
- The ability to teach across MYP Individuals & Societies, drawing on historical, geographical, economic, political and social perspectives through inquiry-based and interdisciplinary learning.
- At least four years' full-time teaching experience in an international or national school offering programmes similar to NIS.
- A commitment to collaborating with colleagues to make learning connected and meaningful.
- A commitment to NIS's values of Safety, Growth, Belonging and Responsibility, creating an environment where all learners are known, challenged and supported.
- A passion for holistic education, relational teaching and restorative approaches, with as much commitment to students' wellbeing as to their academic learning.

Desirable attributes and experiences

- Experience living and/or working in an international context, preferably within an international school.
- Experience teaching MYP Individuals & Societies and/or DP History, ideally both programmes.
- A master's degree or higher in History, Education or another applicable field.
- Experience teaching other MYP or DP Individuals & Societies subjects, providing flexibility within a small collaborative department.
- Experience in departmental leadership, curriculum coordination or mentoring colleagues, supporting a shared vision for teaching and learning.
- Experience as an IB workshop leader, examiner, curriculum reviewer or similar contributor within the MYP and/or DP.
