MYP & DP Japanese Language and Literature Teacher (for native or near native speakers of Japanese)

SECONDARY SCHOOL / TEACHING POSITION

INQUIRE · INSPIRE · IMPACT

Dear prospective colleague, Thank you for your interest in joining Nagoya International School. We want classrooms where students do more than answer questions: they question the answers, make connections and discover what matters. Our values of Safety, Growth, Belonging and Responsibility shape how we teach, learn and care for one another. Academic ambition and a sense of belonging go hand in hand; every child deserves to be known, challenged and supported.

We are seeking an experienced Japanese Language & Literature teacher with the subject knowledge and teaching expertise to work across the MYP and DP (middle and high school), including Japanese literature at the most advanced high-school level. For the right candidate, this position may also include the opportunity to serve as Head of the Japanese Department (which includes both language acquisition and language and literature).

Essential requirements

- A BA degree in Japanese Literature, Japanese Education or an equivalent field, with valid certification in an applicable teaching field (for example, certification to teach middle- or high-school Japanese in Japanese schools).
- At least four years' full-time experience teaching Japanese language and literature in an international or Japanese national school, including teaching at the most advanced high-school level.
- A commitment to collaborating with colleagues to make learning connected and meaningful, with sufficient English skills to engage collaboratively with the wider school staff who do not speak Japanese
- A commitment to NIS's values of Safety, Growth, Belonging and Responsibility, creating an environment where all learners are known, challenged and supported.
- A passion for holistic education, relational teaching and restorative approaches, with as much commitment to students' wellbeing as to their academic learning.

Desirable attributes and experiences

- Experience teaching Japanese Language & Literature within the IB MYP and/or DP.
- A master's degree or higher in Japanese Literature, Japanese Education or a related field.

How to apply

Teaching candidates should ordinarily apply through Search Associates.
