WHAT IS UNITED WAY OF HALL COUNTY?

United Way of Hall County is a local nonprofit that brings people, organizations, and resources together to improve lives right here in our community.

WHAT DOES UNITED WAY FOCUS ON?

UW focuses on the basic things that we all need for a good life: education, good health, and financial stability. They research the needs of our community, bring the right people and ideas together, leverage contributions and invest in programs that have proven results.

HOW DOES UNITED WAY HELP?

United Way invests in local programs and works with community partners. Its Compass Center also helps people navigate resources such as housing support, employment assistance, healthcare access, and financial coaching.
